THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Meall nan Cra, cairns between 1050m E of and 1250m SE of summit comprises a group of cairns scattered along the upper edge of a sloping shelf on the hillside to the W of Loch Eriboll, at over 300m above sea level. At least one of the cairns is probably of Neolithic, chambered type. The area to be scheduled is irregular, measuring a maximum of some 700m N-S by 175m E-W, to include the cairns described and an area around them in which further remains and evidence relating to their construction and use are likely to survive. The modern fence that crosses the S part of the area is excluded from this scheduling. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Durness and the County of Sutherland as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 13th day of December Two thousand, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
