THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

11008

The monument known as Aird nan Uan, cairns, Gallanach, Muck, comprises the remains of two cairns, burial monuments dating from the Neolithic or Early Bronze Age (around 2500-1500 BC), visible as two stony mounds. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them within which related evidence may be expected to survive. It is rectangular and measures 55m N-S by 45m E-W. That part of the central area of the N cairn which has been disturbed by the MacEwan family burials is excluded from the scheduling to allow the continuation of this tradition. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Small Isles and the County of Inverness as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of September Two thousand and four, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
