

Typical view of wallhead form round tower. Ashlar to front elevation and flashings/drip to interior to be in lead as in previously built scheme (see extract from original drawings).

Typical view of section of interior where lead stolen (some pocket flashings remain – to be reinstated).