I sent a draft version of this application to Dr Allan Rutherford in June 2015, and we discussed it by email. I gathered a couple of extra documents on his recommendation.

4 Summary of proposed works (max 20 words)

Removal of an early medieval carved stone from the churchyard into the church building for mounting and display.

5 Description of proposed works

An early medieval cross-carved stone lying in the graveyard of Kilmun Church will be carefully lifted and brought inside the church, mounted on a stone plinth with neoprene pacing and a steel restraining bracked, and displayed in the eastern aisle of the church, facing the door (the main entrance). For details of the procedure see James Innes's description of method included with this application.
