The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979

Amended entry in the schedule of monuments

Historic Environment Scotland in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 hereby amends the entry in the statutory schedule of monuments as set out below.

The monument known as Brahan Wood, chambered cairn 835m NW of Brahan House comprises the remains of a chambered cairn dating from the Neolithic period, probably built between 3800 and 2500 BC. It is visible as a group of large stones that define a two-compartment chamber. The cairn lies 150m above sea level, on a terrace near the top of a south facing slope above the valley of the River Conon.

The scheduled area is circular on plan, measuring 30m in diameter, centred on the large, central slab that divides the chamber, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive.

The monument, which lies in the Parish of Urray and the County of Ross and Cromarty as shown in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted]

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Brahan Wood, chambered cairn 710m W of North West Lodge as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 17 March 1976 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Ross and Cromarty on 8 April 1976.

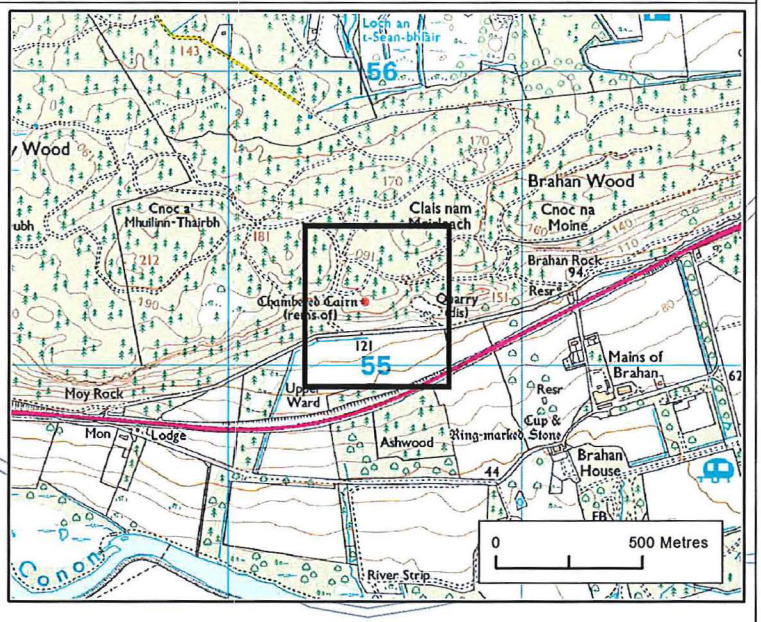

Subscribed by Allan Rutherford, Deputy Head of Designations (Scheduling) with Historic Environment Scotland, at Edinburgh on the 27th day of APRIL Two thousand and Sixteen, before this witness Edwin Smith, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh. [redacted]
