The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979

Amended entry in the schedule of monuments

Historic Environment Scotland in exercise of the powers conferred on it by section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 hereby amends the entry in the statutory schedule of monuments as set out below.

The monument known as Camp Wood, Roman camp 335m SW of Campwood Farm comprises the remains of a Roman camp dating probably to the Antonine occupation of AD 140-160. The monument survives partly as visible earthworks and partly as buried features and deposits visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The camp is located northwest of Stobilee Burn, on a southeast facing slope at about 225 to 240m above sea level.

The scheduled area is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduled area specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all post-and-wire fences, hedges, drystone dykes and telegraph poles. The scheduled area also excludes the top 300mm of road surfaces to allow for their maintenance.

The monument, which lies in the Parish and County of Lanark as shown in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Roman Camp at Camp Wood near Cleghorn as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 3 April 1935 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Lanark on 30 may 1935.
