THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dunnideer stone circle, 450m NW of Dunnideer Tower, comprises the remains of a Recumbent Stone Circle of prehistoric date, which lies at the top of a N facing slope, 570m SW of Dunnydeer Farm. It is adjacent to the N boundary (marked by a line of beech trees) of a small field or rough pasture within which the circle stands. Only three stones are now visible. The area to be scheduled is a circle 35m in diameter centred on the presumed centre of the circle, to include the remains of the stone circle and an area around it in which traces of activities associated with the construction and use of the monument may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Insch and the County of Aberdeen as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of October Two thousand and three, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
