THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Buchaam, souterrain, Forbestown comprises a souterrain of prehistoric date. The monument is a semi-subterranean, passage-like structure thought to have been used for storage in the later prehistoric period. It is located in the garden at the N corner of Buchaam farmhouse. Although partly destroyed, the roofed section of the souterrain curves from the entrance 4-5m S towards the farmhouse. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them within which related material may survive as yet undiscovered. It is rectangular measuring approximately 8m by 10m, and bounded on the north-east by the farm drive, and on the south-west by a garden path. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Strathdon and the County of Aberdeen as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 13th day of February Two thousand and one, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
