THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 162
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Ballinshoe Castle, 370m ENE of Ballinshoe comprises the remains of Ballinshoe Castle, dating to the late 16th or 17th century. It is visible as a rectangular tower house with two storeys and an attic. The castle stands on the N side of the Vale of Strathmore at around 95m above sea level. The scheduled area is rectangular on plan, to include the remains of the castle and an area around it in which evidence for the castle's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. On the N side, the scheduling extends up to but excludes the road. The scheduling also excludes the above-ground elements of post-and-wire fences, a gate, and the above-ground elements of field walls extending E and W from the castle. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kirriemuir and the County of Angus as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Ballinshoe Castle as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Minister of Works in respect of the monument dated 14 August 1961 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Angus on 13 September 1961.

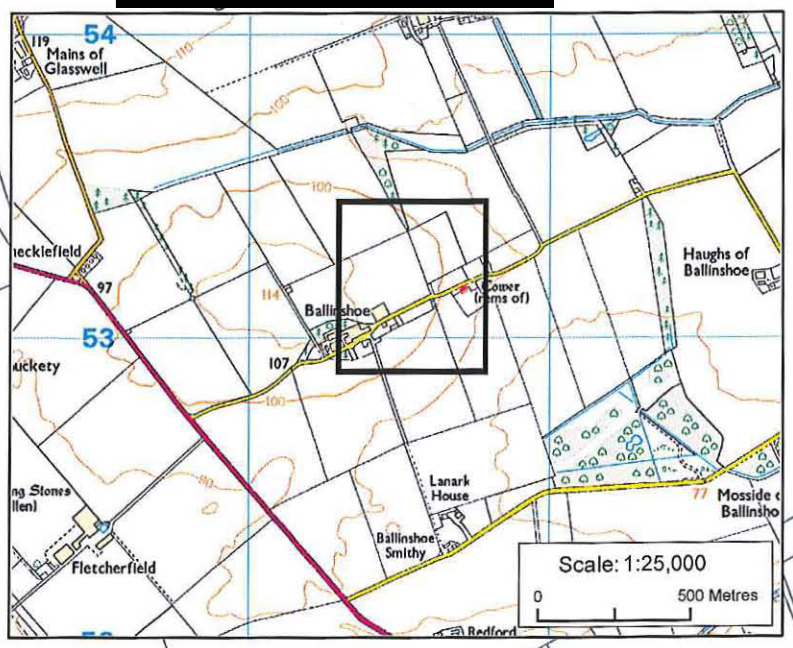

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 28th day of July Two thousand and fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
