THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 239
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dun Mor, dun 195m WSW of Balygrundle comprises a dun, a later prehistoric defended settlement, likely to date to the Iron Age (between around 500 BC and AD 500). It survives as an oval-shaped enclosure on top of a natural knoll, under rough grazing. The dun measures approximately 40m NNE-SSW by 25m transversely, including the spread rubble remains of its drystone wall which are visible on the S and W sides only. The monument is located on the island of Lismore, some 700m from its E shore, at 50m above sea level, overlooking the seaward approaches of the Lynn of Lorn and the mainland to the E. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan and extends to the base of the rock outcrop on which the monument is sited. The scheduled area includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Lismore and Appin and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 4th day of February Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
