THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cladh Sorobaidh, burial ground, site of church and two crosses, Tiree, comprises a burial ground containing an Early Christian cross-slab, a medieval church. The area to be scheduled is irregular in shape, measuring a maximum of 60m NNW-SSE by a maximum of 55m WSW-ENE. It is defined by the burial ground walls to the N, W and NE. It is defined to the S by a line running from the angle between the E and NE walls of the burial ground to a point on the W wall 16m S of the walled burial enclosure, along which line a low mound appears to represent the former S extent of the burial ground. It excludes all lairs for which rights of burial still exist. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Tiree and the County of Argyll as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
