THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dalquharran Castle (Old Castle) comprises the remains of the old castle of Dalquharran, surviving as substantial standing structures and as buried archaeology, together with an area enclosing the outer defences and infrastructure. The monument stands on the N bank of the Water of Girvan c.300m SSE of the late 18th century castellated mansion (also called Dalquharran Castle), designed by Robert Adam. The monument occupied a strong position, guarded by the Water of Girvan, marshlands, and a former moat. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them within which related material may be expected to survive. The area is irregular, with maximum dimensions of 129m N-S by 126m E-W. The modern fences are excluded from the scheduling. The surface of the modern paths are excluded to a depth of 300mm. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dailly and the County of Ayr as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and exeeuted as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Aet 1979.

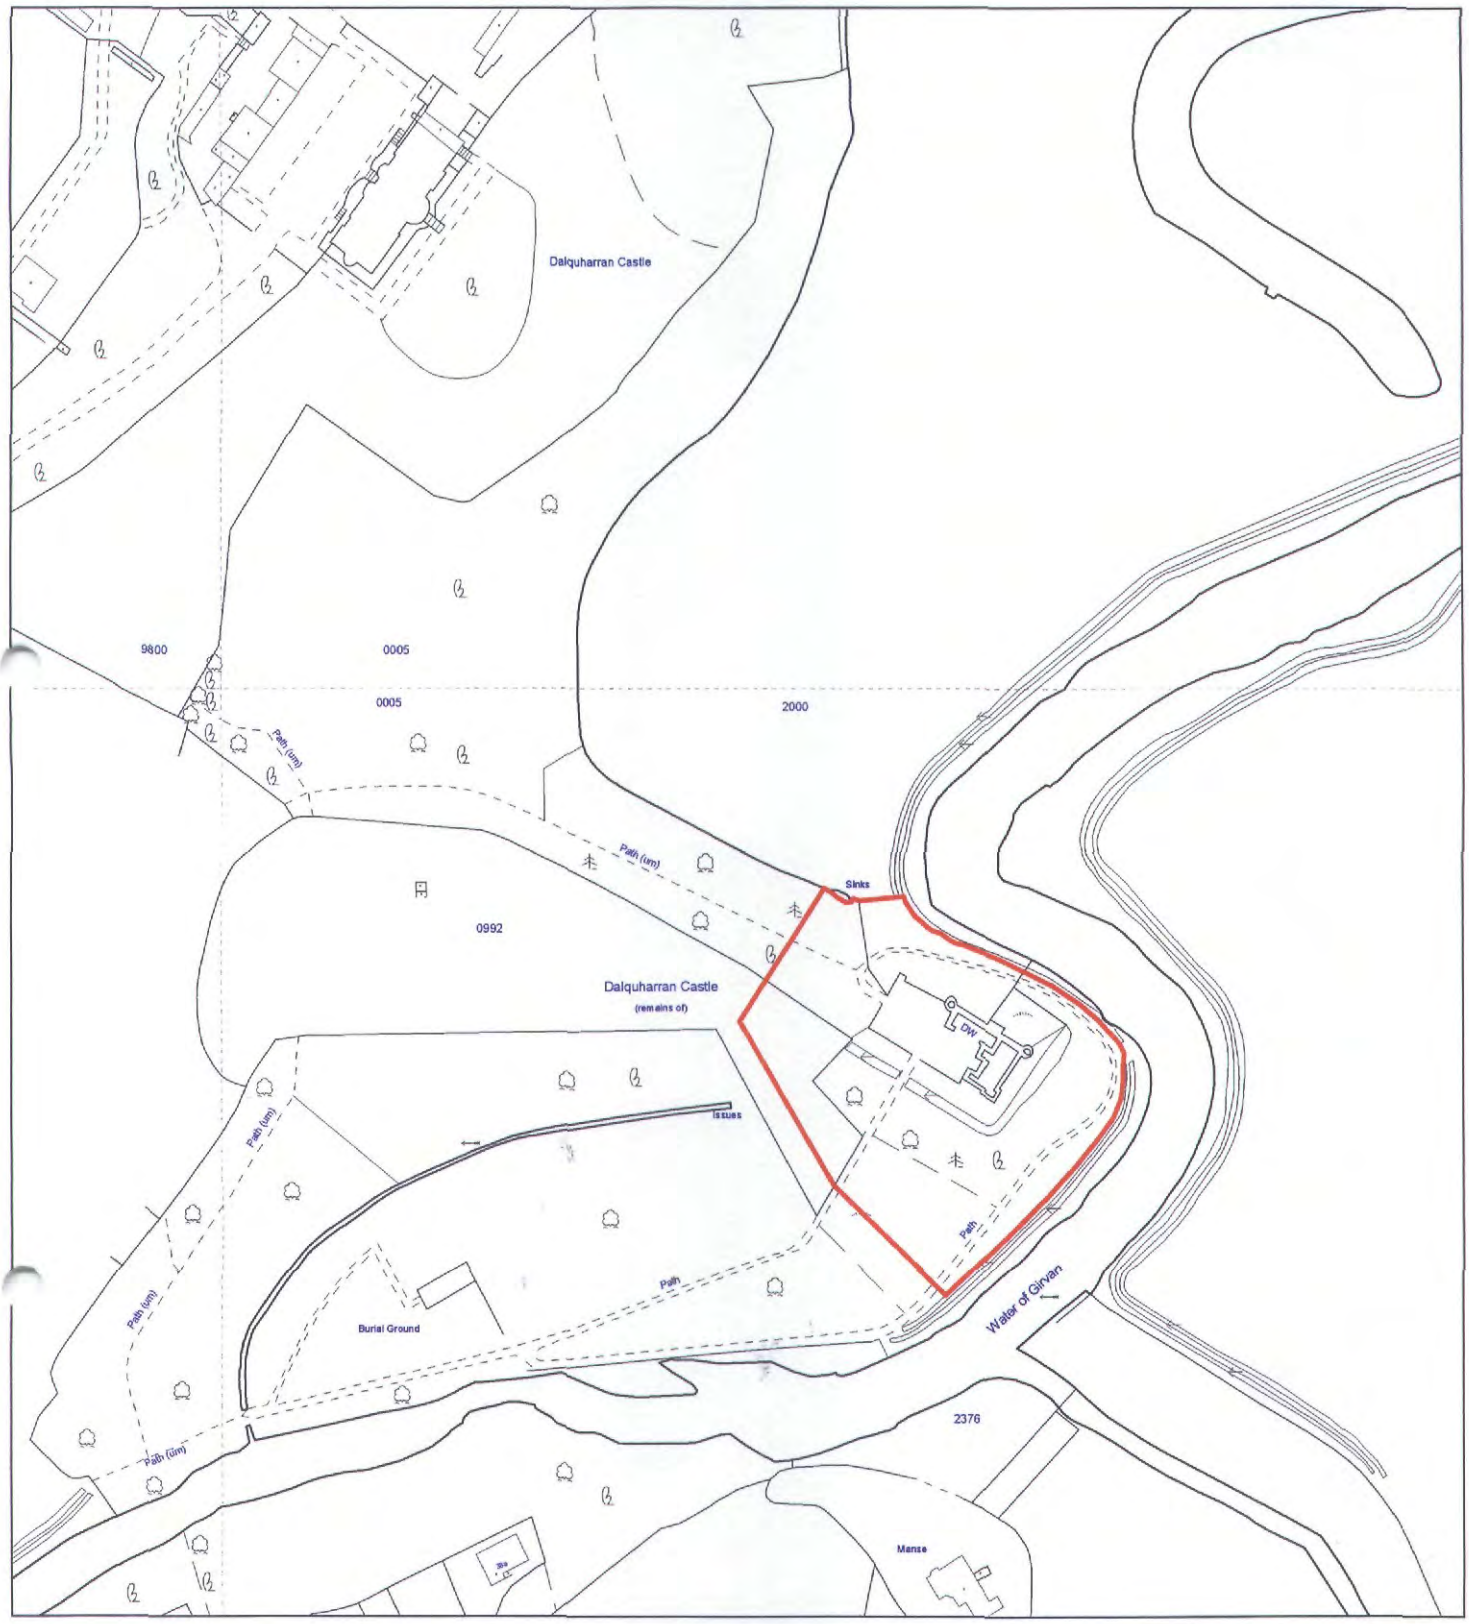

Subscribed by Owen Kelly, Director, Properties in Care with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 21st day of May Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
