THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Tormore, long cairn 875m SSE of Crochandoon comprises the remains of a chambered burial cairn dating from the Neolithic period. The cairn lies at 30m OD on a rising E-facing slope in gently sloping moorland. Almost all of the cairn material has been removed, revealing a burial chamber constructed from substantial stone slabs. The area to be scheduled is rectilinear, measuring 55m NNE-SSW by 40m to include the remains described above and an area around and between them where material relating to the construction and use of the cairn may be expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilmory and the County of Bute as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 8th day of December Two thousand, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
