THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
AMENDED ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The entry in the Schedule of monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the above Act in respect of the monument formerly known as Saint Adrian's Chapel, dated 8 July 1958 and recorded in the Division of the General Register of Sasines for the County of Fife on 7 November 1958, now to be known as Isle of May Priory, is hereby in accordance with the provisions of section 1(5) of the above Act amended to describe the area of the scheduled monument as being irregular on plan, defined along its east and west flanks by existing field boundaries. The southernmost point is on the west field wall, 62m south of the change in angle of that wall. From here the southern limit of the area passes 55m in a north-easterly direction to meet up with the east field wall. It runs 58m in a north-westerly direction along the wall to its change of direction, and then runs a further 22m northwards with the wall. From there it crosses westwards for 30m to meet up again with the west field wall, and thence southwards along that wall to join the starting point as shown delineated in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto. The walls themselves are excluded from scheduling.
