THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Leith Links, artillery mounds comprises two grassed-over mounds, traditionally identified as the remains of artillery mounts dating to the Siege of Leith in 1560. The mounds are situated in Leith Links, in that area of the park bounded by Duncan Place to the W, East Hermitage Place to the S and Links Gardens to the E. The areas to be scheduled include the two mounds and an area around them in which remains relating to their construction and use may be expected to survive. The westernmost area is circular with maximum dimensions of 48m W-E by 50m N-S. The easternmost area is oval and measures 58m SW-NE by 48m NW-SE. The scheduling specifically excludes the surfaced footpaths and the concrete interpretation plinths to allow for their routine maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Edinburgh and the County of Midlothian as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto

[REDACTED] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 11th day of December Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
