THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Augmund Howe cairn and cairn-derived bank, 800m SSE of Els Ness comprises Augmund Howe, a substantial stony mound, surrounded by an arc of eleven smaller mounds inter-linked by a low bank. Towards the N end of the enclosed area, the remains of a rectangular structure with rounded corners is indicated by an arrangement of low, turf covered banks. The area to be scheduled is irregular, with maximum dimensions of 510m N-S by 240m E-W, to include the central cairn of Augmund Howe, the arc of eleven cairns to landward of Augmund Howe, the interconnecting bank, the rectangular enclosure and an area around in which evidence relating to the construction and use of each component and of the whole group may survive. The area is bounded to the W by an existing scheduled area (Index No 1353) and to the N by the scheduled area of the Property in Care/Scheduled Area of the chambered tomb of Quoyness (Index No 90243). The field fences that form the NNW and NW limits of the area are excluded from the schedule to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Lady and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 9th day of October Two thousand and one, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
