THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1241
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Bay of London, mound 290m SE of Youth Hostel, Eday comprises a burial mound dating probably to the Bronze Age (between about 2000 and 800 BC). It is visible as a circular mound measuring 12.5m in diameter and surviving to a height of approximately 1.2m. It is composed of sandy soil and stones, and its profile may have been altered by an accumulation of sand since it was originally sealed. Despite some earlier intrusion, the mound survives relatively intact. The mound is located on the N side of the Bay of London at around 10m above sea level, overlooking the bay and Sanday. The scheduled area is circular on plan and measures 30m in diameter, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Eday and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Mound, Bay of London as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 10 October 1936 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 23 November 1936.

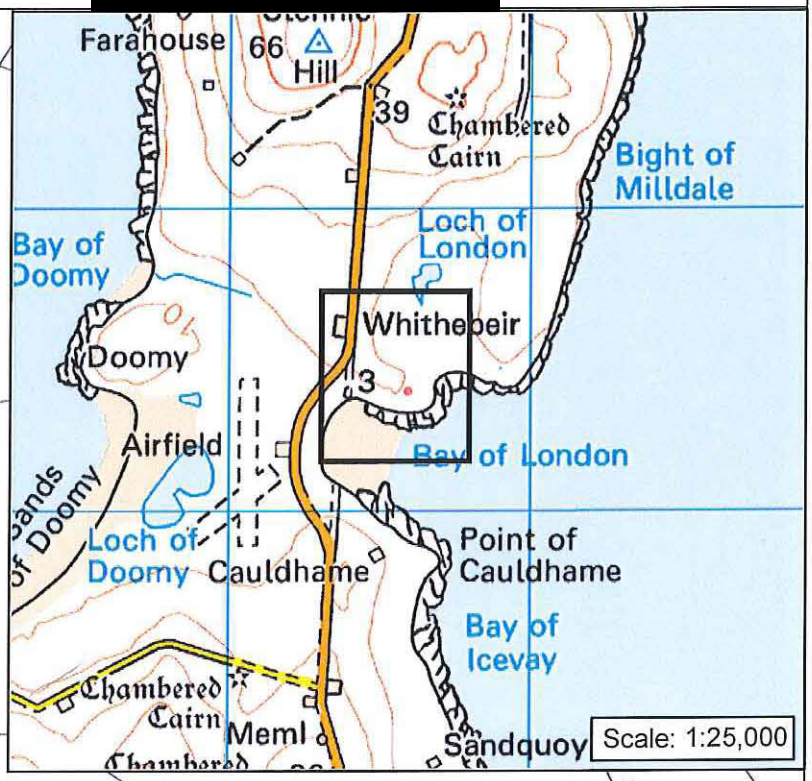

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 28th day of August Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
