THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1270
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Green Knowe, burnt mound, 230m SW of Braeside comprises the remains of a well-preserved and substantial burnt mound, dating probably to the Bronze Age (between about 2000 and 800 BC). It survives as an elongated grass-covered mound, measuring approximately 25m N-S by 30m transversely and standing approximately 1.5m high. Burnt stone has been recorded previously in exposed sections of the mound. The scheduled area is circular on plan, measuring 40m in diameter. It includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Birsay and Harray and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Green Knowe as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 6 January 1940 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 3 April 1940.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 28th day of August Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
