THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1313
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Knowes of Euro, mounds 340m SW of Appietown, Gorseness comprises the remains of two barrows dating from the Bronze Age (between about 2000 and 800 BC). The barrows are visible as two, roughly circular, turf-covered earthen mounds, about 110m apart. The mound to the W measures 13.8m in diameter and stands around 1m high. The larger mound, which lies to the ENE, measures 15.5m in diameter and stands up to 1.2m high. The monument occupies sloping ground at around 40m above OD at the neck of a promontory, overlooking the Bay of Isbister to the SW and the Bay of Puldrite to the ESE. The scheduled area comprises two circles on plan, centred on the mounds, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of the post-and-wire fences along the farm road to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Evie and Rendall and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Knowes of Euro as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 21 February 1936 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 9 April 1936.

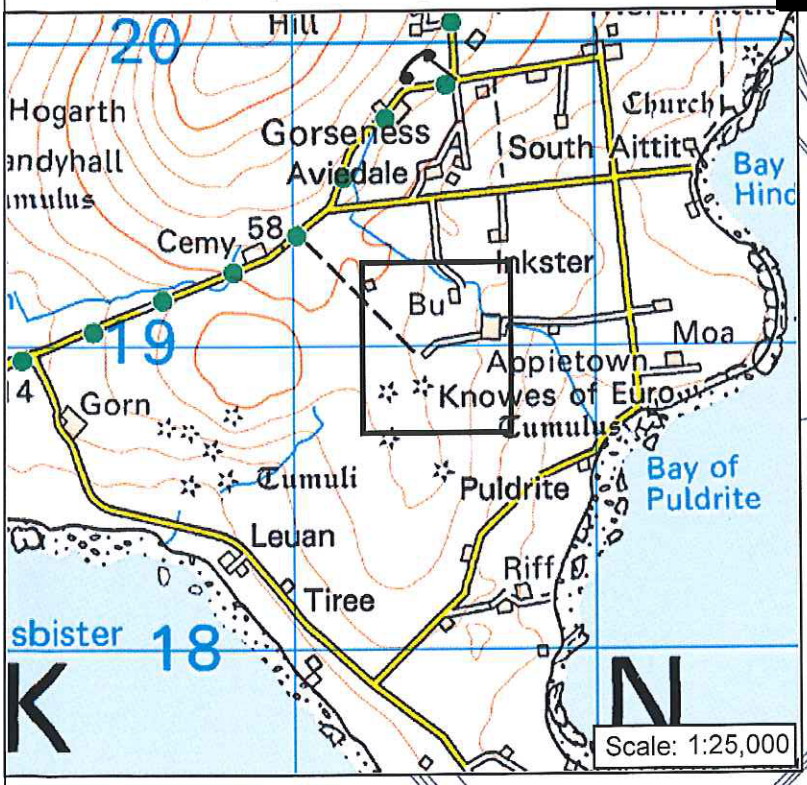

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of September Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
