THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1360
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as North Wald, mounds and burnt mounds 350m NNE of comprises the remains of three burial mounds and two burnt mounds, dating probably to the Bronze Age (between about 2500 and 800 BC). The monument is visible as two groups of mounds in close proximity, lying on either side of a modern field boundary. The N and S groups are scheduled as two separate areas. Both areas are irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Evie and Rendall and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Mounds north-north east of Northwald as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 9 March 1938 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 29 March 1938.

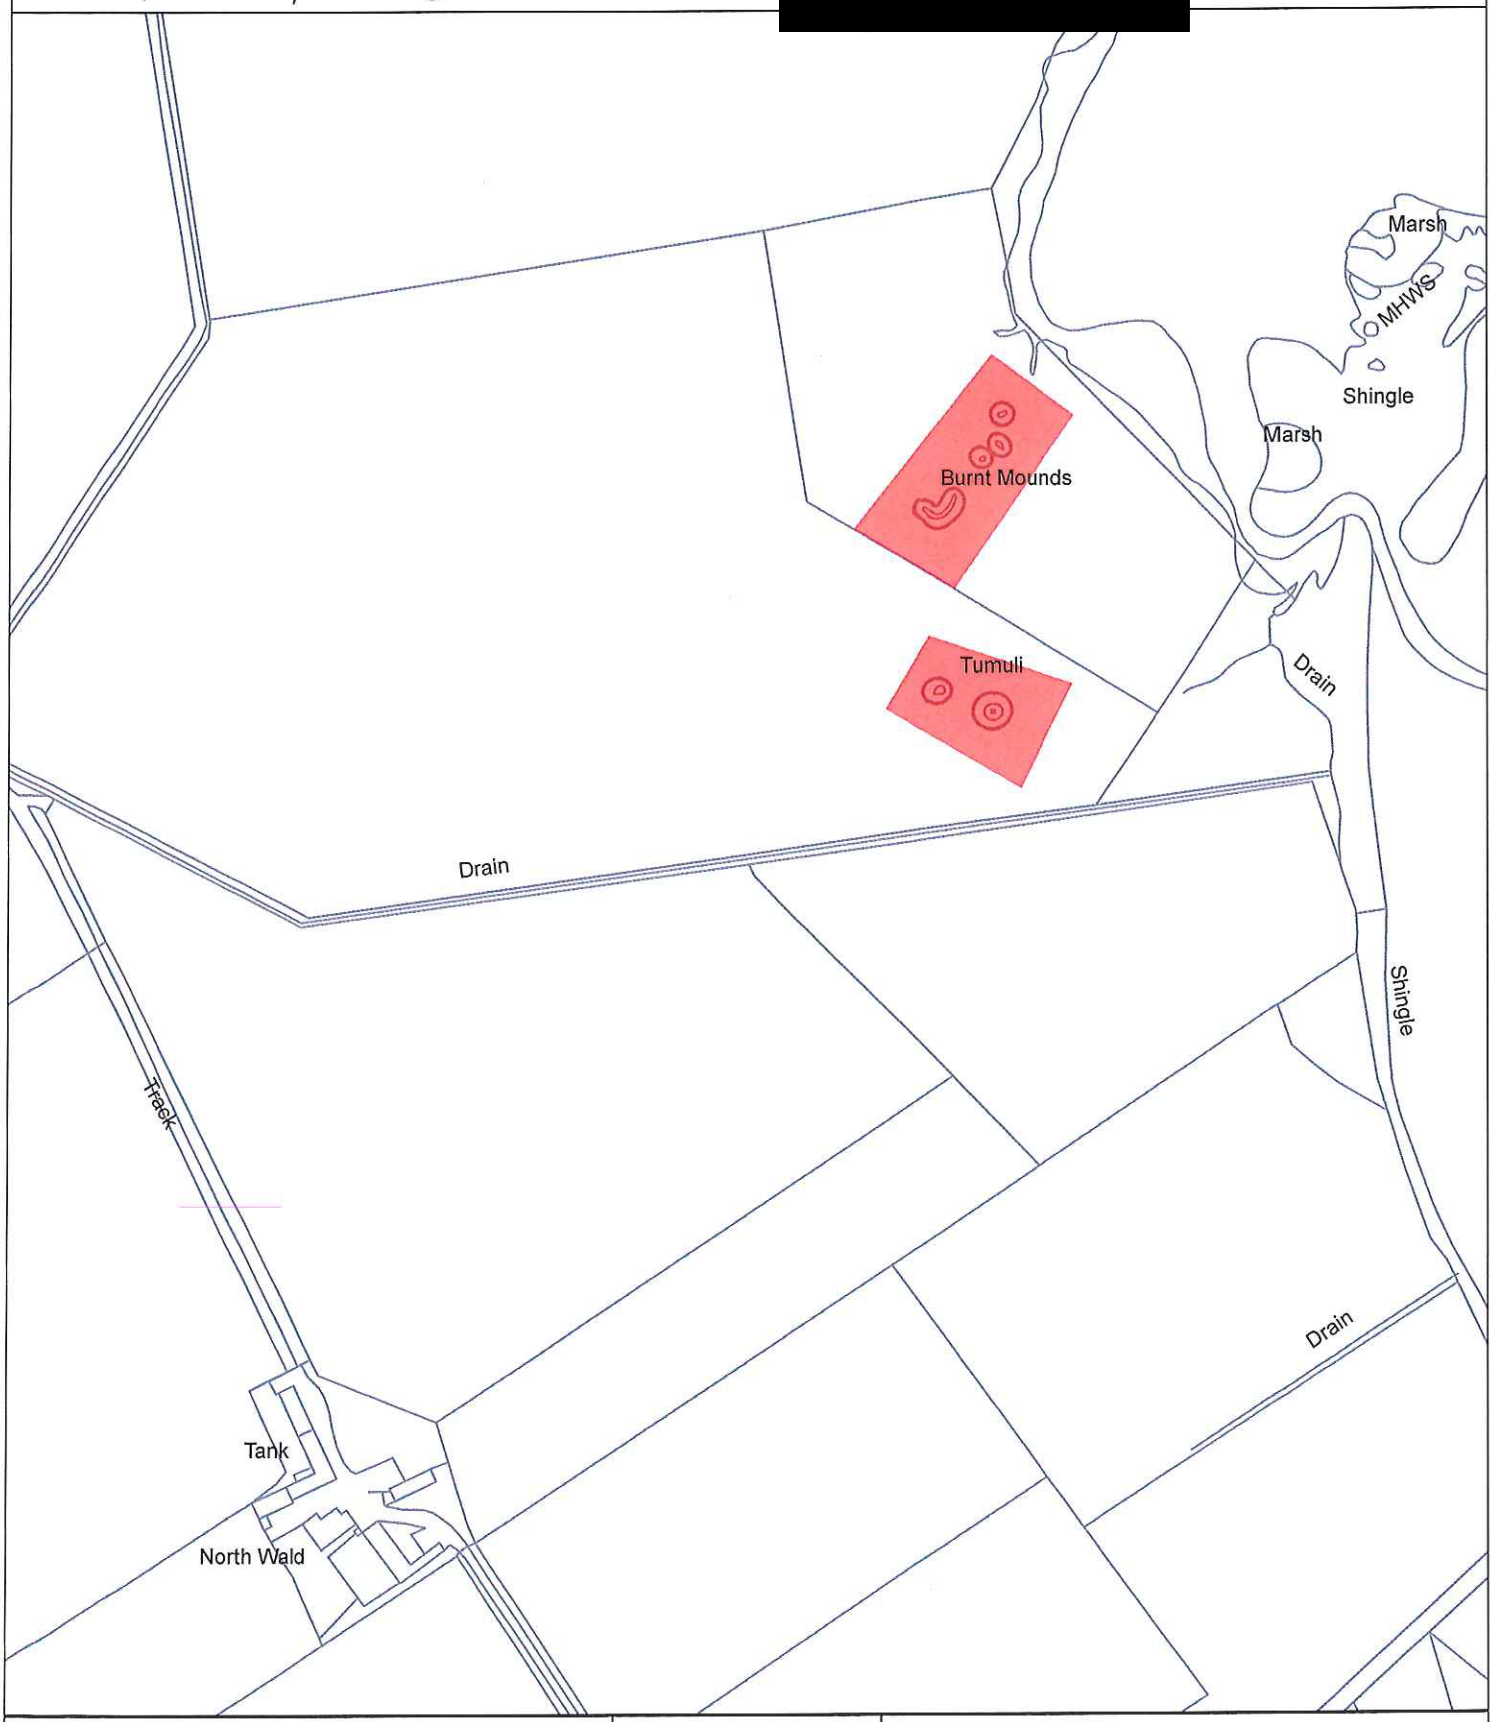

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 24th day of February Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
