

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1371
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Robie's Knowe, burnt mound 405m NNE of Howe Cottage comprises the remains of a burnt mound dating probably to the Bronze Age (between about 2000 and 800 BC). It is visible as a roughly circular grass-covered mound, measuring approximately 10m in diameter and standing up to 1.5m high, and appears to be well-preserved. In 1967, surveyors recorded that it is composed primarily of smallish stones, including burnt stones. At least 17 earth-fast stones protrude from its E face, indicating the likely presence of associated structures. The mound is situated in rough pasture around 40m W of the Burn of Woo and 200m from the coast. It is sited on low-lying, N-facing land at around 15m above sea level and overlooks Eynhallow Sound and Rousay to the NE. The scheduled area is circular on plan, measuring 20m in diameter. It includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. Specifically excluded from the scheduled area are the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence that crosses the W side of the monument, to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Evie & Rendall and the County of Orkney & Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Robie's Knowe as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of HM Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 16 March 1936 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 9 April 1936.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 19th day of November Two thousand and Fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
