

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1423
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Loch of Clumly, broch comprises the remains of a broch dating probably from the Iron Age (between about 600 BC and AD 400). It is visible as a substantial oval turf-covered stony mound, measuring around 19m in diameter and standing 2m in height. A stretch of about 12m of the outer wall-face of the broch tower is visible around its SW side and there is evidence of an intramural cell on the W side. The broch is located at the NW edge of the freshwater Loch of Clumly on a low-lying marshy promontory, which may originally have been an island. It is possible that an isthmus of slightly higher ground leading WSW from the broch to dry land at the loch edge may conceal a causeway. There are also indications of external structures to the S of the mound. The broch lies around 20m above sea level. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction and use is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Sandwick and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as the broch at the Loch of Clumly as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 11 September 1939 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 3 May 1940.

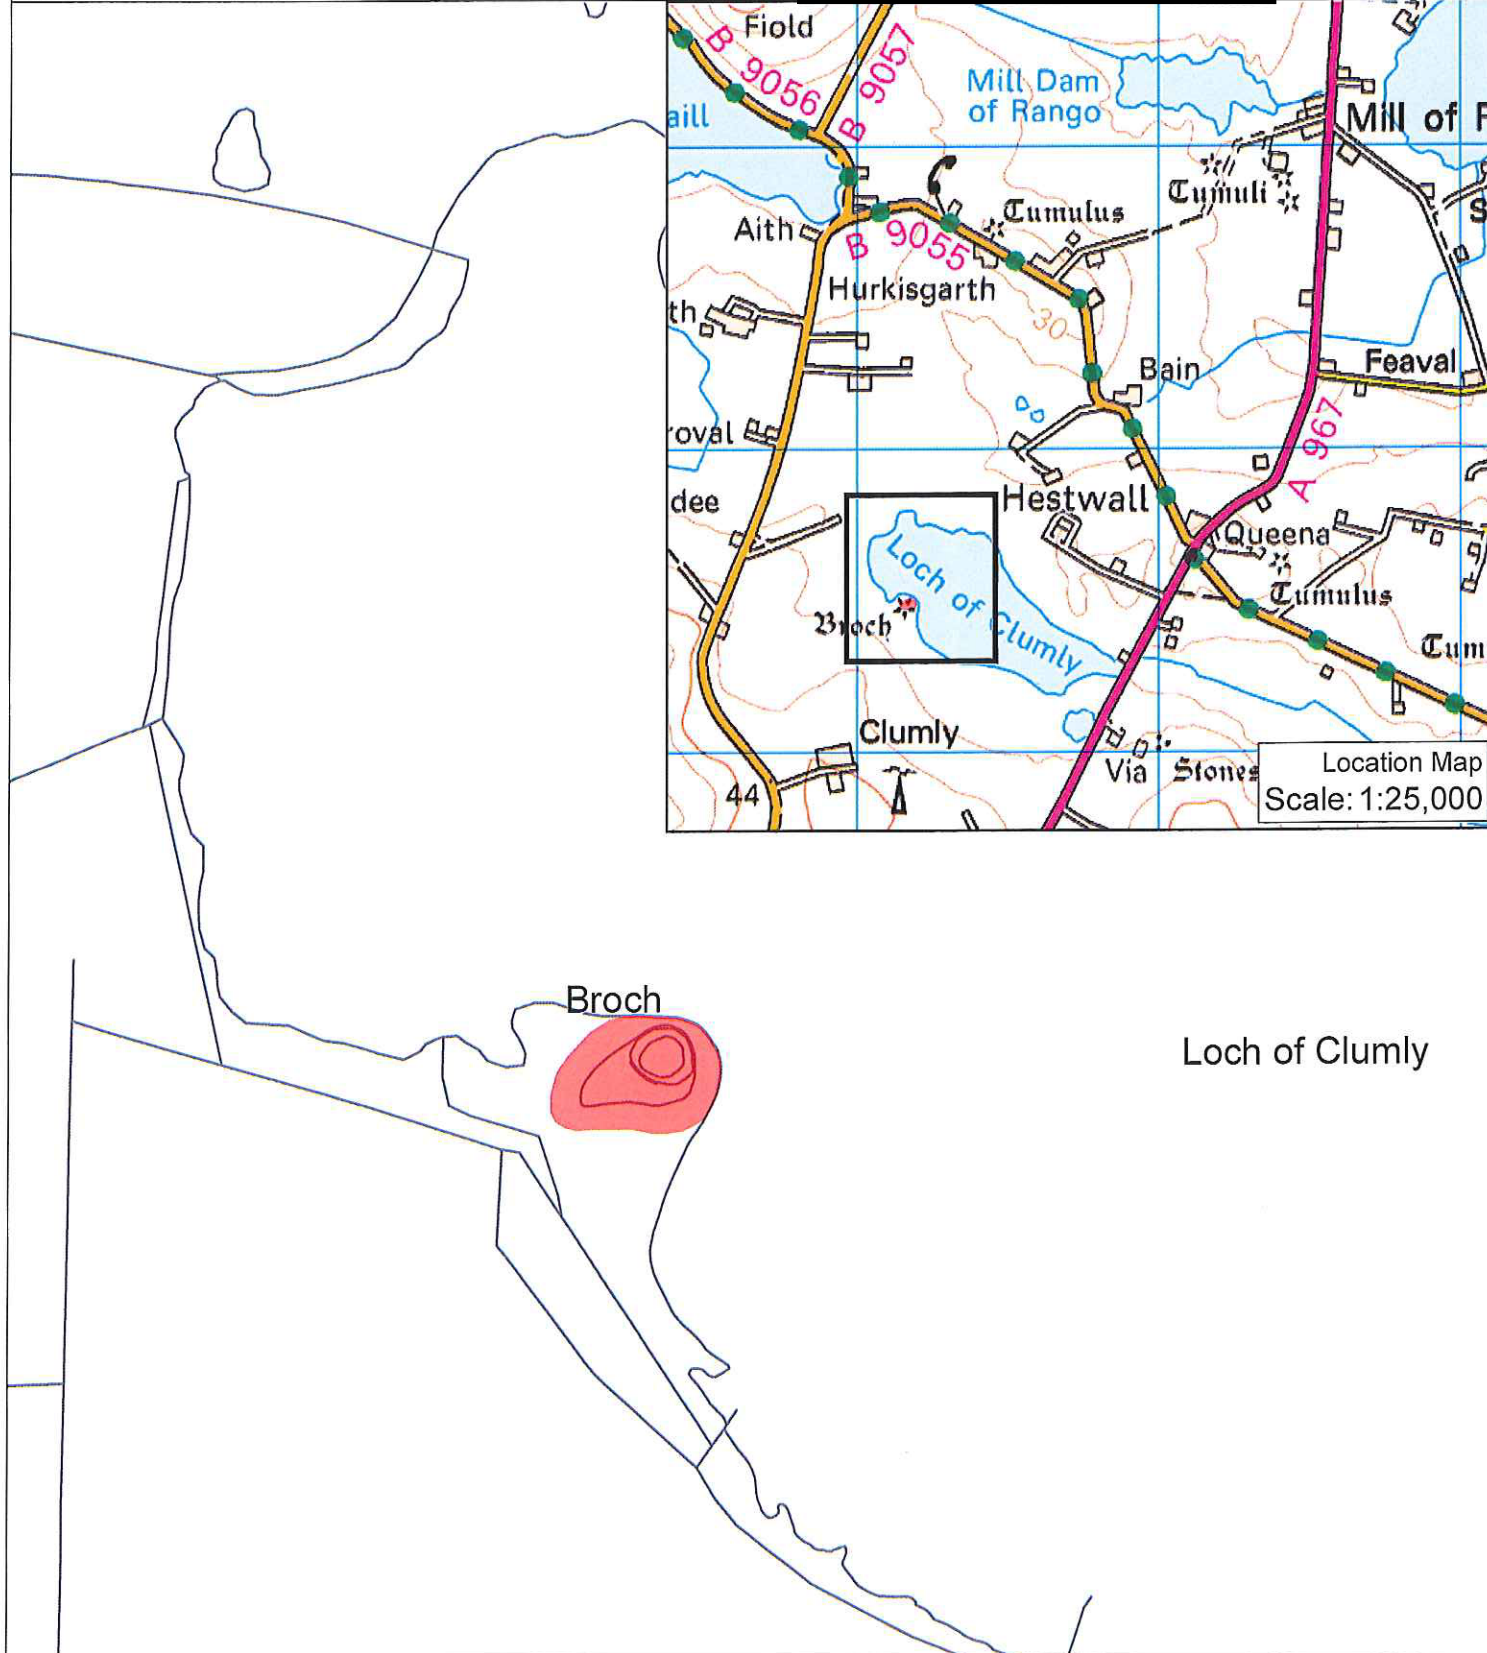

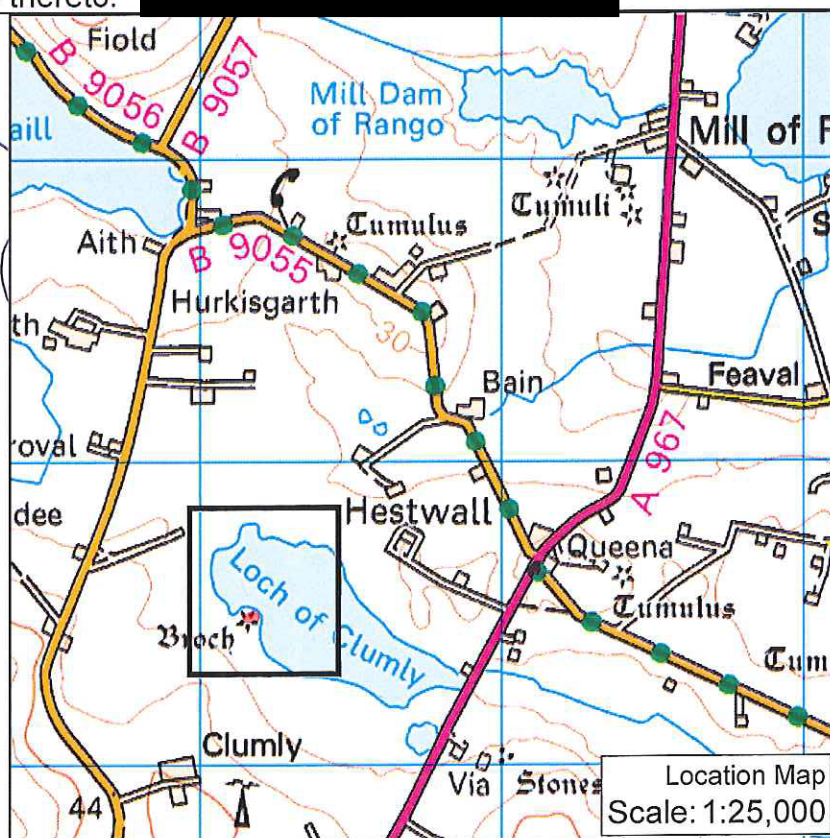

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 26th day of march Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
