THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1441
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Fold of Setter, enclosure, Eday comprises the remains of a prehistoric enclosure dating probably to the late Neolithic or Bronze Age (approximately second millennium BC). It is visible as a circular heather-covered bank of earth and stone, enclosing an area approximately 85m in diameter. The bank is 2m wide on average and stands 0.5m high around most of its circuit. The monument occupies a level area of mainly rough grazing, with boggy peat in the NE third, at around 20m above sea level. The scheduled area is circular on plan, measuring 100m in diameter, and includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive, as shown in red on the accompanying map. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of the post-and-wire fence to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Eday and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects described in the [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Fold of Setter as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 10 October 1936 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 16 November 1936.

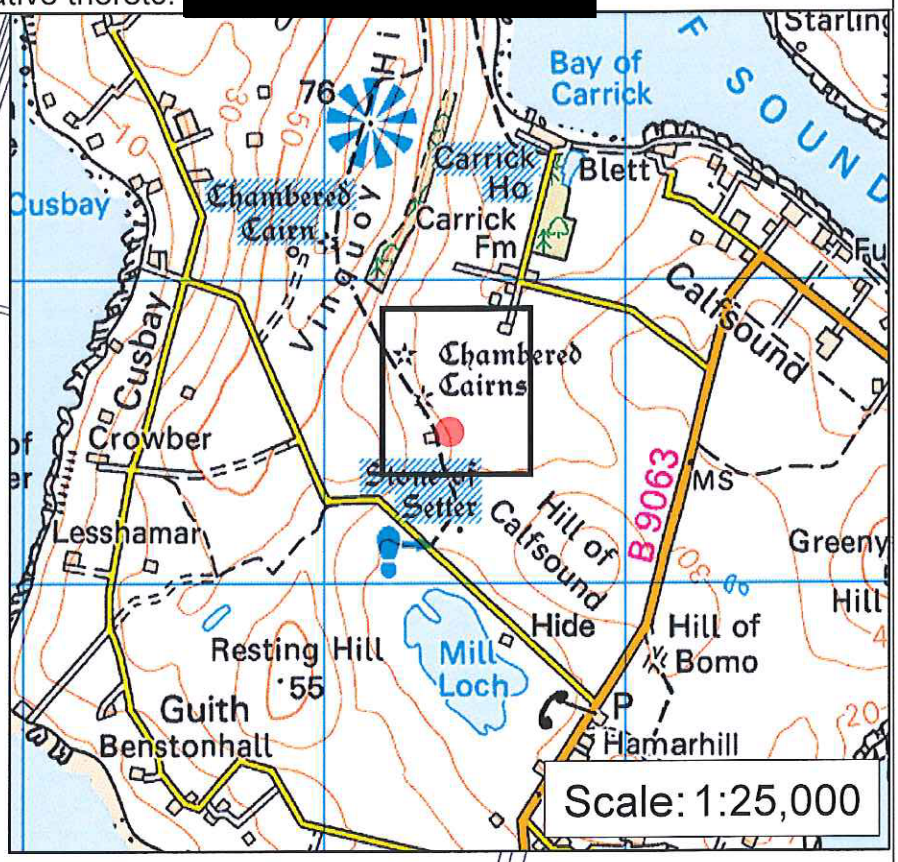

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 20th day of October Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
