

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1457
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Knowe of Queen o' Howe, broch, Westray comprises a substantial broch mound and associated remains dating probably from the Iron Age (between about 600 BC and AD 400). It is visible as a large turf-covered mound, with additional structural remains and occupation debris visible in a coastal section along its N face. The mound measures approximately 22m in diameter and survives to a height of around 2m. Geophysical survey has indicated the presence of substantial features in the area surrounding the broch. The scheduled area is irregular on plan and includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction and use is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all stone dykes and post-and-wire fencing to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Westray and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland as follows: 1. Title No OAZ8838

, 2. Title No OAZ8803

, is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Knowe of Queen o' Howe, broch as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by Scottish Ministers in respect of the monument dated 31 October 2000 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 19 December 2000.

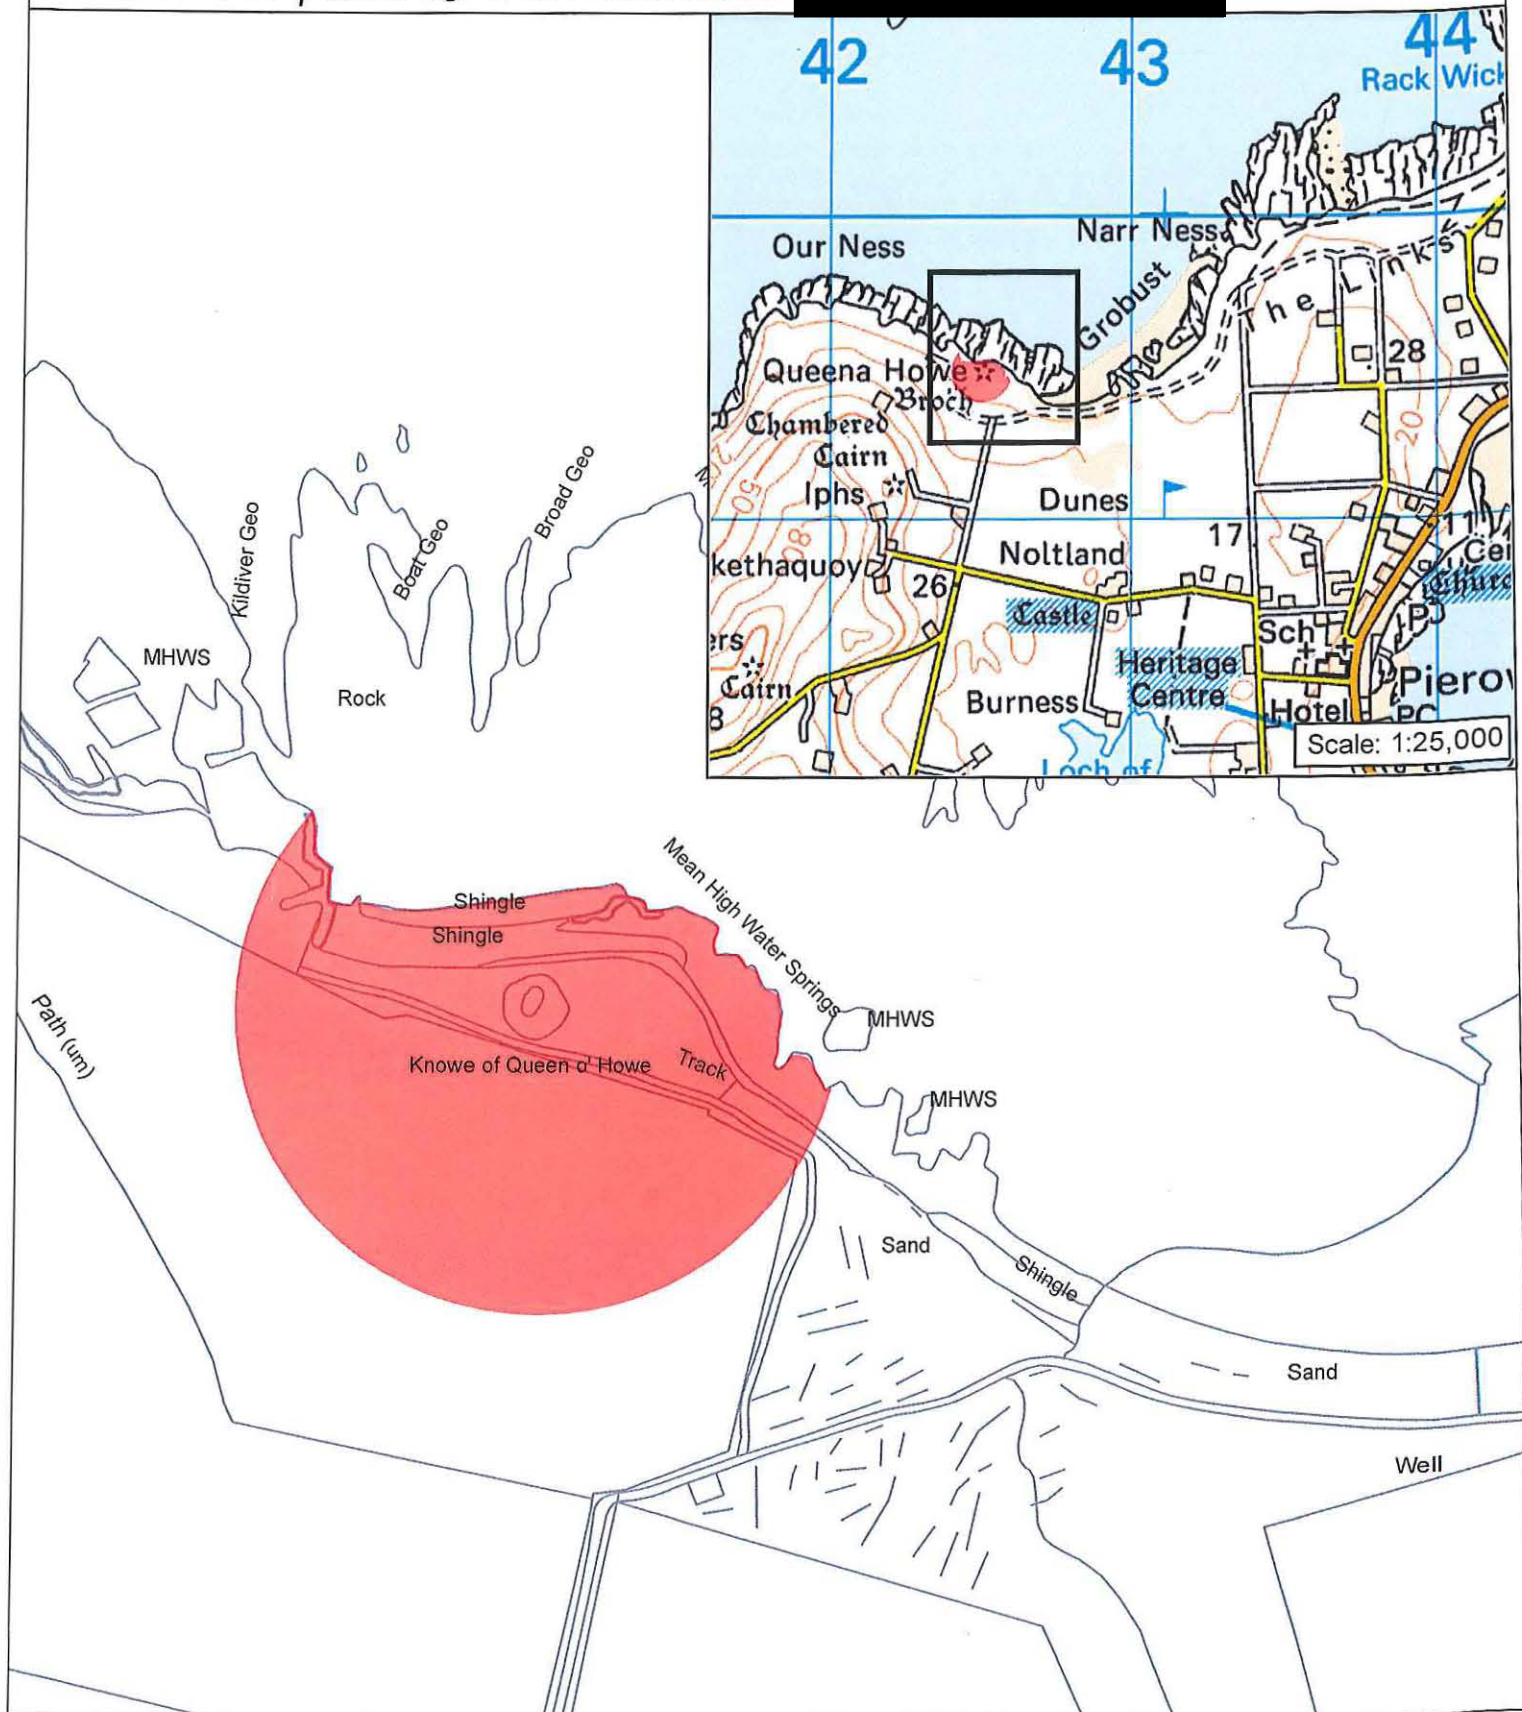

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of September Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
