THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1476
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Viera Lodge, broch, Rousay comprises a broch dating to sometime between 600 BC and AD 400. It survives as a substantial undisturbed grass-grown mound located within the garden of Viera Lodge. Occasional stone is visible or can be traced below ground in parts of the mound. Archaeological deposits and traces of walling and other structures are also visible in the cliff section (along the southern edge of the mound). The broch is situated around 5m above sea level on a gentle slope on the S coast of Rousay, overlooking Eynhallow Sound. The scheduled area is irregular on plan and includes the remains described above and an area around it within which evidence relating to the monument's use and re-use is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a stone garden wall and all post-and-wire fences to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Rousay and Egilsay and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No OAZ487 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Broch at Viera Lodge as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in respect of the monument dated 12 December 1935 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Orkney and Zetland on 12 February 1936.

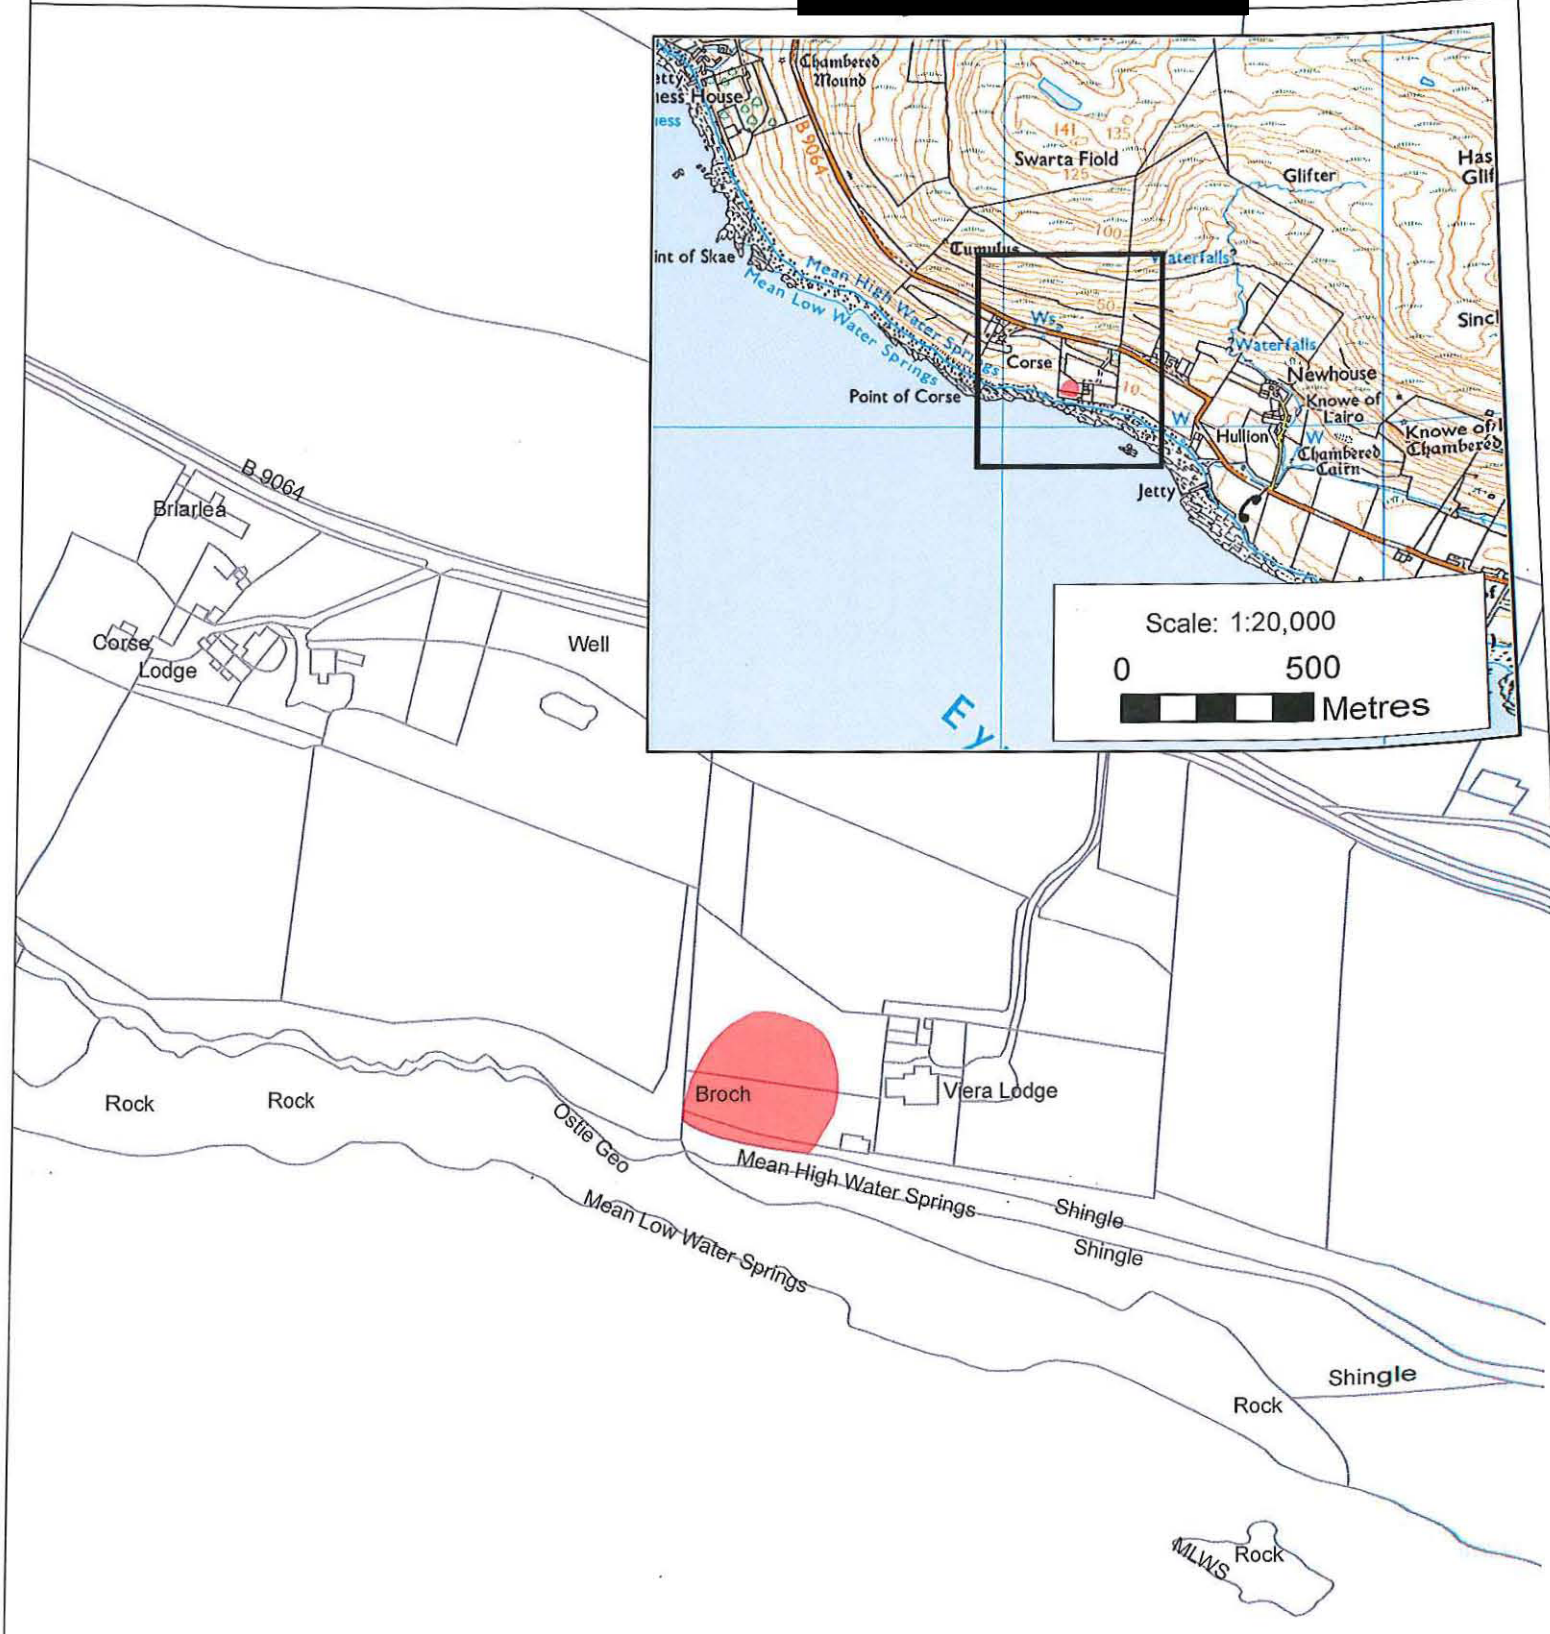

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 5th day of February Two thousand and fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
