

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1607
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kaims Castle Roman Fortlet comprises a Roman fortlet dating to the 1st or 2nd century AD. It is visible as three concentric grass-covered banks and a ditch, lying on a pronounced knoll about 65m north-west of the A822 road. It stands at about 190m above sea level on an area of higher ground that forms the watershed between Strathallan and Strathearn and has a dramatic outlook north-east towards Strathmore. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. To allow for their maintenance, the scheduled area specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a flag pole sited within the fortlet and of a post-and-wire fence which bounds the main earthworks to the north-east and north-west. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Ardoch and the County of Perth as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15 day of December Two thousand and nine, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
