THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1653
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Lurg Moor, Roman fortlet and Roman road comprises the remains of a Roman fortlet and Roman road, dating probably to the mid 2nd century AD. It is situated on high ground above the town of Greenock on the northern edge of Lurg Moor. The fortlet is visible as the earthwork remains of the bank and ditch and contains internal mounds indicating buried features. To the south of the fortlet is a long linear mound, representing the raised camber of a Roman road. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all post-and wire fences in the area to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Greenock and the County of Renfrew as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Deborah Mays, Deputy Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the / day of March Two thousand and eleven, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
