THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 1673
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Clach Chairidh, symbol stone comprises a standing stone, decorated with Pictish symbols, situated on a natural eminence in a pasture field on the N edge of Edderton village. The stone stands within a small fenced enclosure approximately 135m SSW of the Ardmore Lodge Hotel (also known as the Edderton Inn). The standing stone itself was erected probably in the Neolithic or Bronze Age period, between about 4000 BC and 1500 BC. It was re-used probably some time between 500 AD and 700 AD when Pictish symbols were carved on it. The area to be scheduled is circular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Edderton and the County of Ross and Cromarty as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Deborah Mays, Director of Policy and Outreach with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 2 day of November Two thousand and eleven, before this witness Alasdair Young, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
