THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Hawick Moat Park, motte, comprises an artificial earthen motte of truncated conical form, located on the high ground above the west bank of the Siltrig Water, some 500m SSW of its confluence with the River Teviot. The motte rises to some 7.6m and has a diameter at its base of about 29.75m. The area to be scheduled covers the motte itself, together with the area likely to have been occupied by the bailey. It is defined by the inner edges of the path surrounding the parkland around the motte, excluding the seating area to the north and the playground to the SW, extending to an area with extreme dimensions of 153m NE-SW and 102m NW-SE. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Hawick and the County of Roxburgh as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of October Two thousand and three, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
