THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
AMENDED ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The entry in the Schedule of monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the above Act in respect of the monument previously known as Gossabrough, broch, dated 26 June 1934 and recorded in the Division of the General Register of Sasines for the Counties of Orkney and Zetland on 6 September 1934 and now to be known as Gossabrough, broch and settlement, East Yell is hereby in accordance with the provisions of section 1(5) of the above Act amended to describe the area of the scheduled monument as being irregular on plan. The S boundary runs parallel to, and 10m S of, the modern fence which crosses the S flank of the broch mound, turning at its E end to follow a second fence toward the NE. The SE corner of the scheduled area is formed by the junction of these two fences. From this SE corner, the area's boundary runs N for 50m, then W for 80m, then S for 80m to rejoin the S boundary. This includes the broch and the settlement together with an area around them in which further remains are likely to survive below ground level as shown delineated in red on the plan annexed and executed as relative hereto.
