THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 2089
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

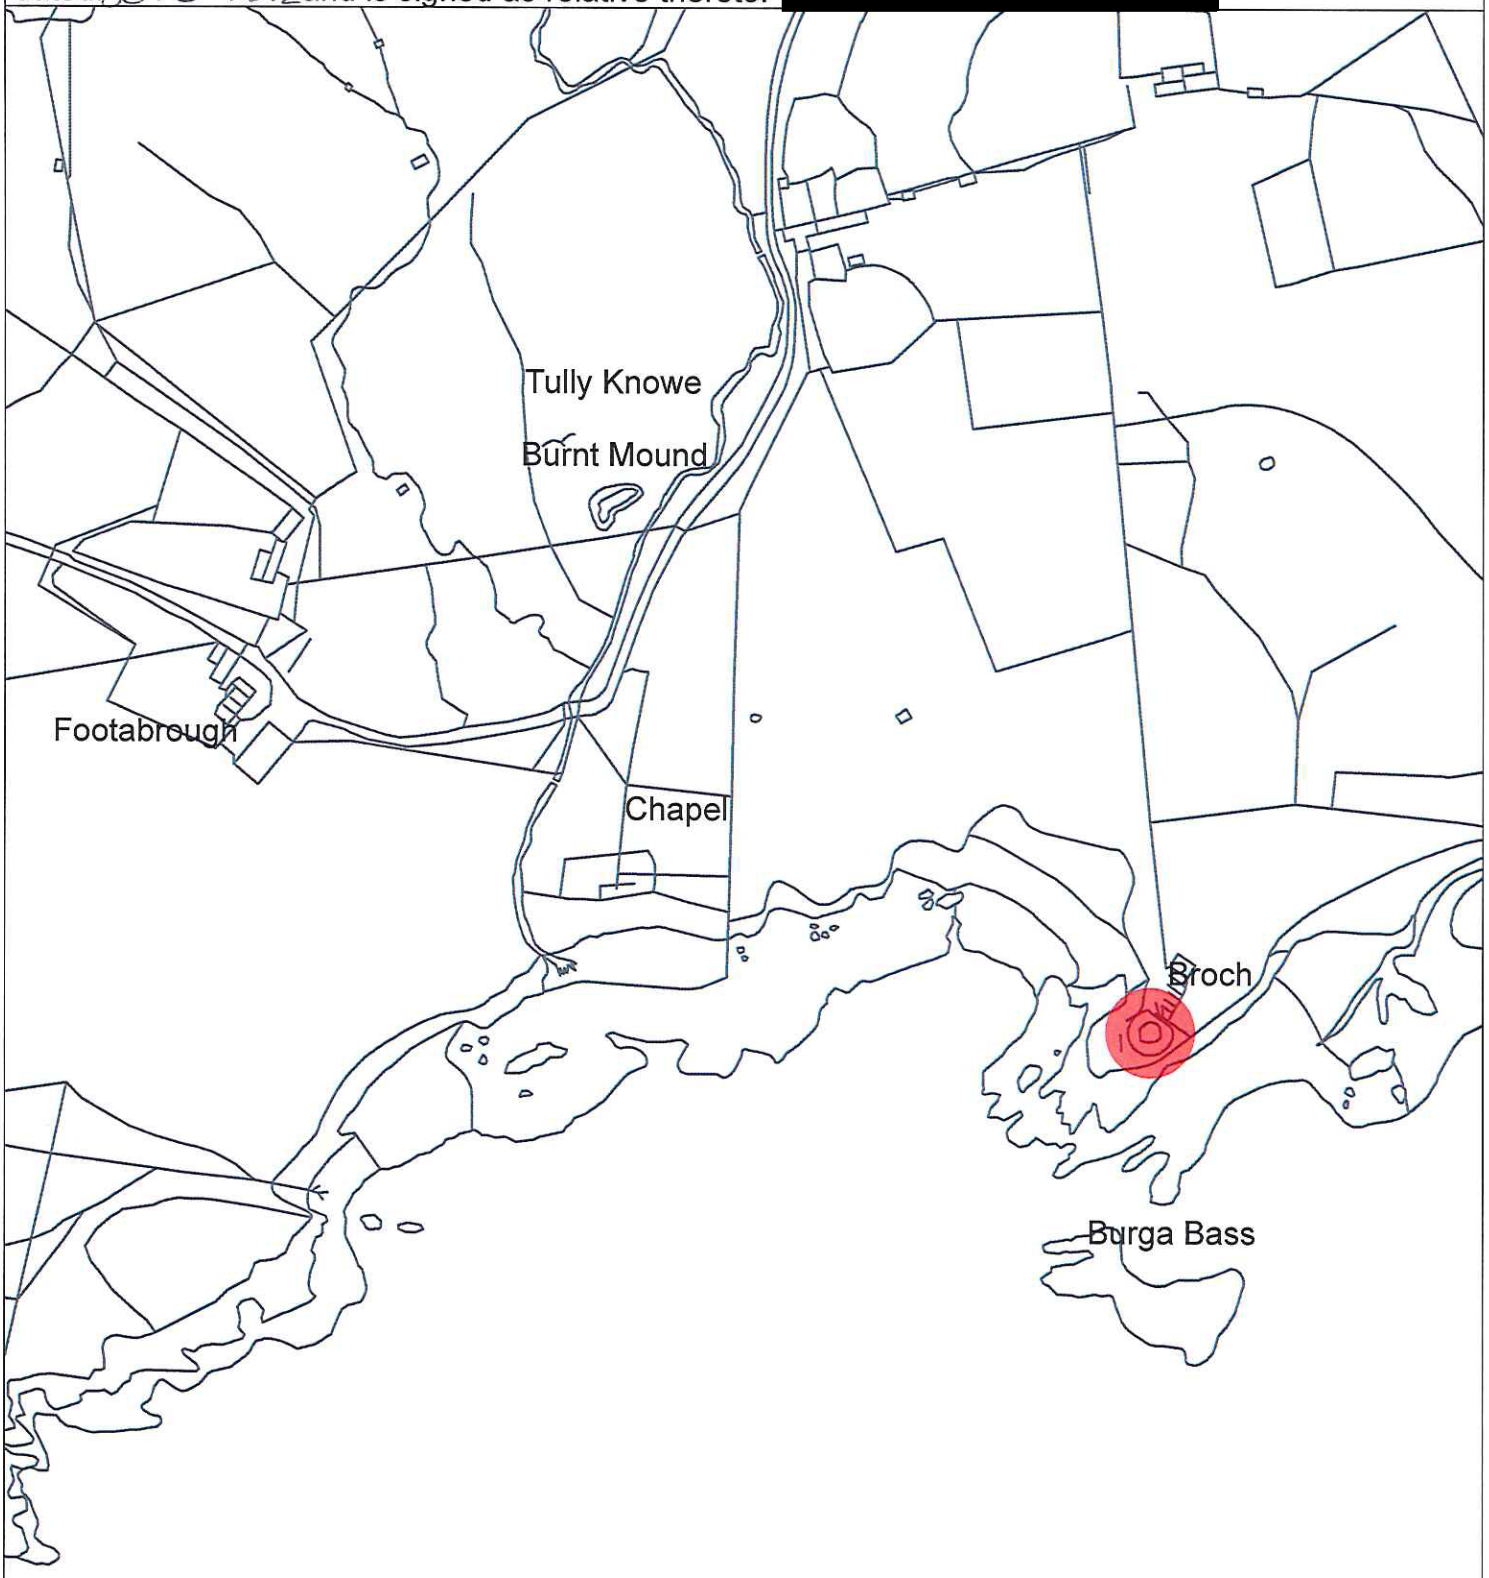

The monument known as Voe of Footabrough, broch 310m ESE of Footabrough comprises a broch of Iron Age date, built probably between 500 BC and AD 200. The broch is visible as a mound with protruding stonework, covering an area approximately 20m in diameter and standing more than 2m high. The broch occupies a small, low headland at the western side of West Mainland, just above the high water mark . It is surrounded by the sea on three sides, and overlooks the Voe of Footabrough and westwards to the North Atlantic. The area to be scheduled is circular on plan and measures 30m in diameter, centred on the centre of the monument. The area to be scheduled includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduled area specifically excludes the above-ground remains of the later stone structures to the north of the broch, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Walls and Sandness and the County of Orkney and Sandness as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 30th day of March Two thousand and twelve, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
