THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Clathick House, cist, 500m NE of comprises the remains of a stone cist of prehistoric date, situated in undulating pasture land on the flat summit of a low knoll. The monument lies about 500m NE of Clathick House at about 130m OD. The visible remains comprise the 'end stone' of the cist which leans at about a 45 degree angle to the E over a stone slab lying on the ground. The slab could either have been a side stone or a cover for the cist. The low knoll is a natural feature. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them within which related material may be expected to survive. It is circular, with a diameter of 20m centred on the summit of the knoll at a point about 4m NW of the visible stones. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Monzievaird and Strowan and the County of Perth as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 11th day of January Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
