THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 2296
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Penchrise Pen, fort 635m SW of Penchrise Farm Cottage comprises the remains of a hillfort, dating probably to the Iron Age (between about 800 BC and AD 500). Up to three parallel banks and ditches enclose a central area on the hill summit and there is an annex to the W and an enclosure to the NE. The monument is situated on Penchrise Pen at around 440m above sea level. The hill has extensive views in all directions and is a very prominent feature in the local landscape. The scheduled area is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Cavers and the County of Roxburgh as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Penchrise Pen Fort as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Minister of Public Building and Works in respect of the monument dated 12 March 1963 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Roxburgh on 11 April 1963.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 8th day of July Two thousand and fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
