THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Moyle Hill, enclosure comprises the remains of hilltop enclosure, with several probable phases of use. The monument occupies the summit of Moyle Hill and commands views of the surrounding countryside. The enclosure is defined by a tumbled stone rampart, which skirts the shoulder of the hill. Three possible entrances pierce this rampart, in the S, E and NE. The enclosed summit area is very uneven with abundant natural rock outcrops and traces of a palimpsest of low turf or stone walls. At the SW end of the enclosure, a natural knoll has been fortified with a further rampart which partially overlies that encompassing the hill summit. The area to be scheduled is irregular, measuring a maximum of 210m E-W and by 330m N-S. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Colvend and Southwick and the County of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 16th day of January Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
