THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cardrona Tower consists of a small whinstone rubble-built 16th century L-shaped tower house, of two main storeys above a vaulted basement. It occupies a terrace on the side of Cardrona Hill, overlooking the Tweed valley. A small declivity to its south-west probably indicates the likely site of the main courtyard associated with the tower; towards the southern end of this area there is a spring which probably supplied the tower with water. The area to be scheduled is a rectangle of 70m NE-SW by 105m NW-SE. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Traquair and the County of Peebles as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 13th day of February Two thousand and one, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
