THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3050
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as The Bank, settlement 485m SW of Kirkhope comprises a complex of Iron Age settlement remains, dating probably from the first millennium BC or early centuries AD, overlain in places by the remains of relatively recent walls and buildings. Researchers have noted three groups of early settlement features, some clearly superimposed. These are (1) three levelled house platforms in an oval enclosure surrounded by a stone wall; (2) four scooped homesteads, three with clearly defined house platforms and associated yard areas; (3) the remains of two circular stone houses associated with three walled yards. Together, the early settlement features cover an area measuring 125m NNW-SSE by 95m transversely. The site lies on a gentle NE-facing slope at the foot of a spur that separates the Newholm Hope Burn (80m to the NW) and the Manor Water (240m to the ESE). The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Manor and the County of Peebles as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No PBL4400 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

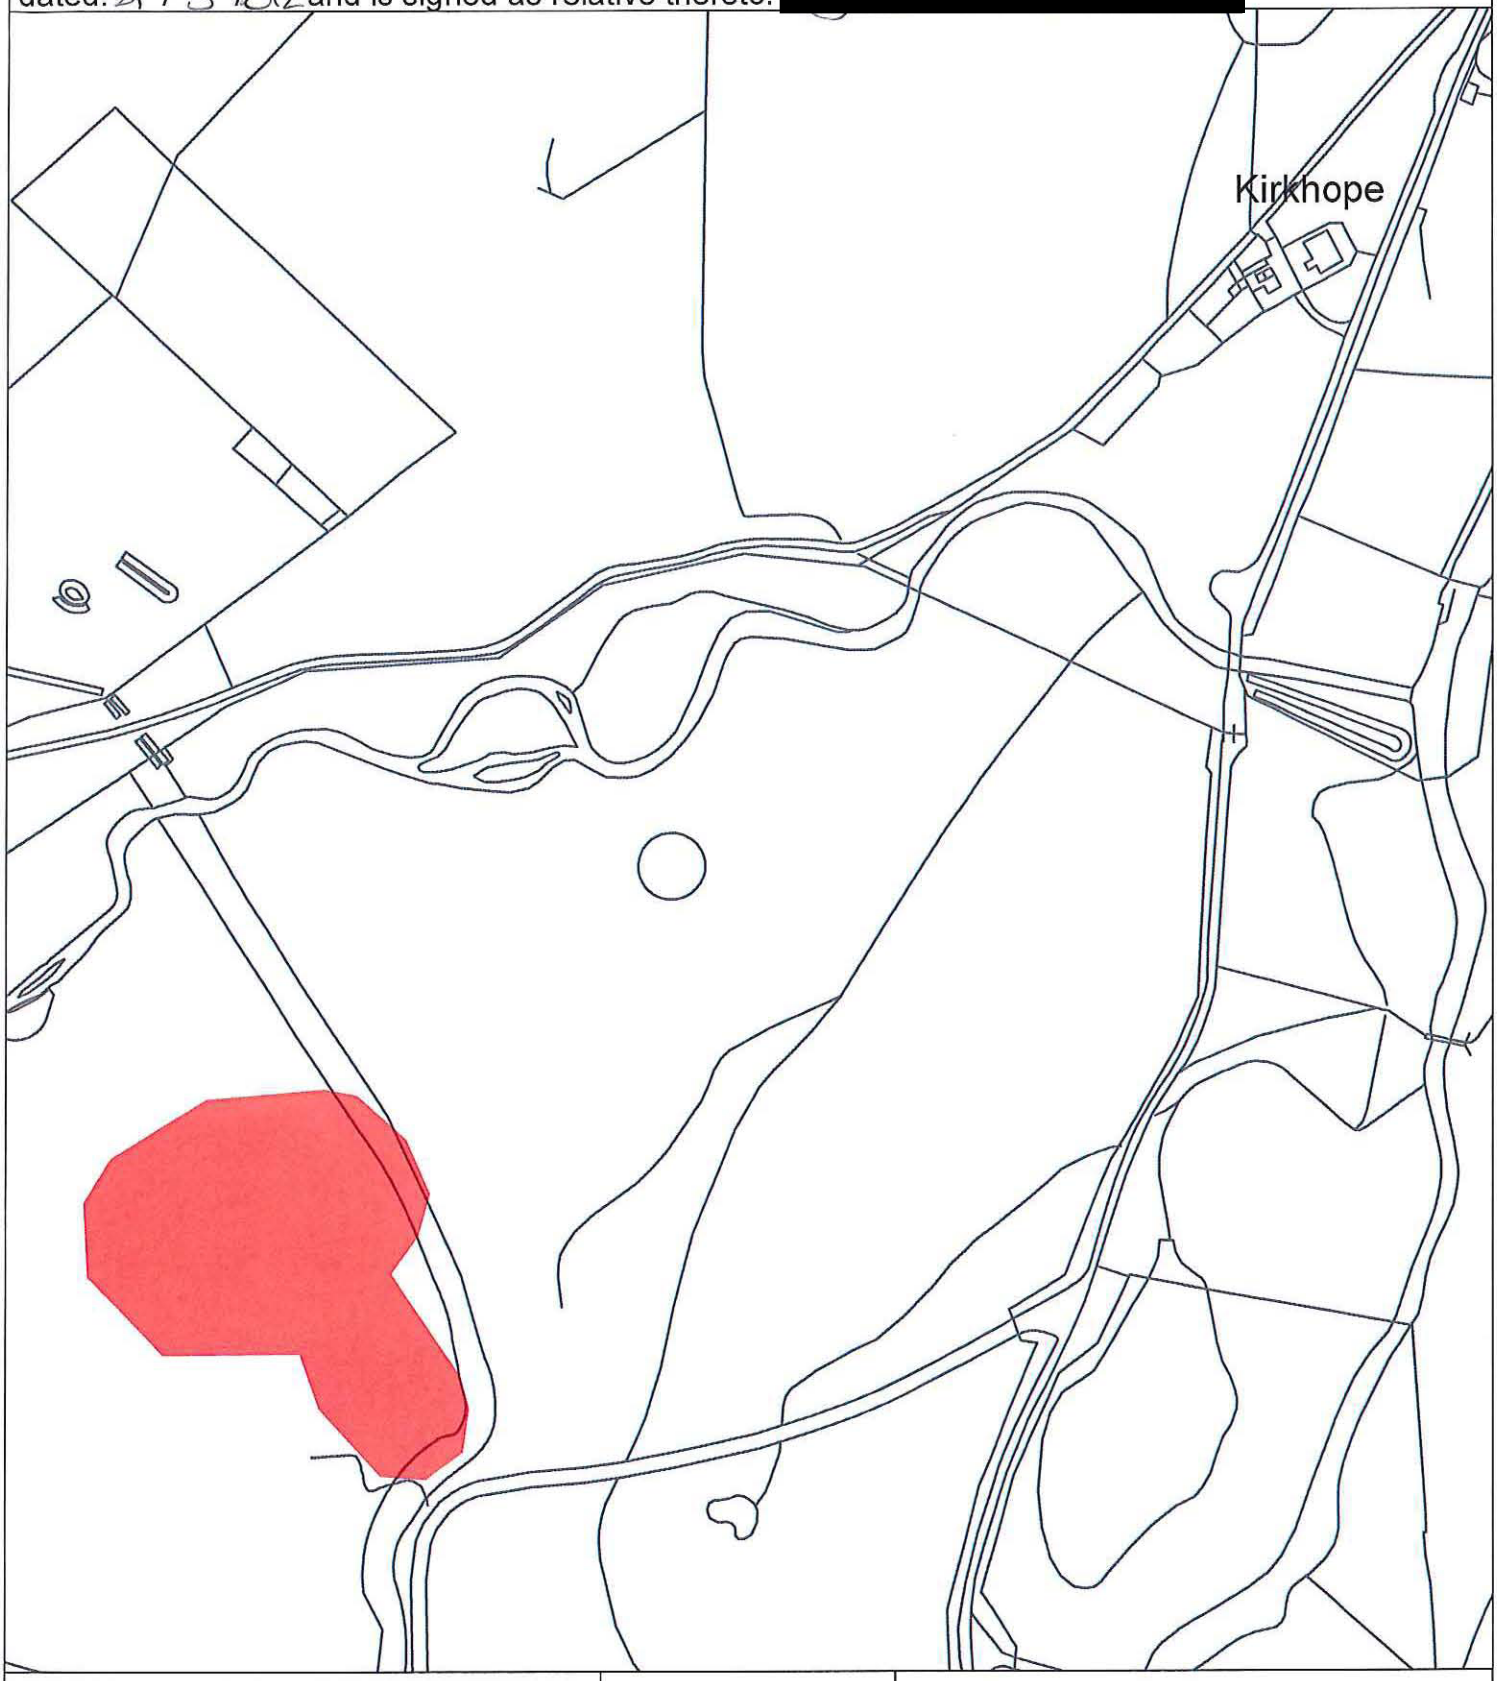

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 21st day of March Two thousand and twelve, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
