THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3076
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dumbarrow Hill, dun 230m ENE of Hillkirk comprises the remains of a dun, a later prehistoric defended settlement dating probably to the Iron Age (between about 800 BC and 500 AD). It comprises an oval enclosure, with internal measurements of approximately 28m E-W by 21m transversely, within a single stone wall varying from around 3.5m to 5m wide. The entrance appears to have been in the E. The monument is situated on top of Dumbarrow Hill, a natural rocky prominence, at around 165m above sea level. The scheduled area is oval on plan, measuring 58m E-W by 51m N-S, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kirkden and the County of Angus as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Fort, Dumbarrow Hill as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 28 December 1971 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Angus on 14 March 1972.

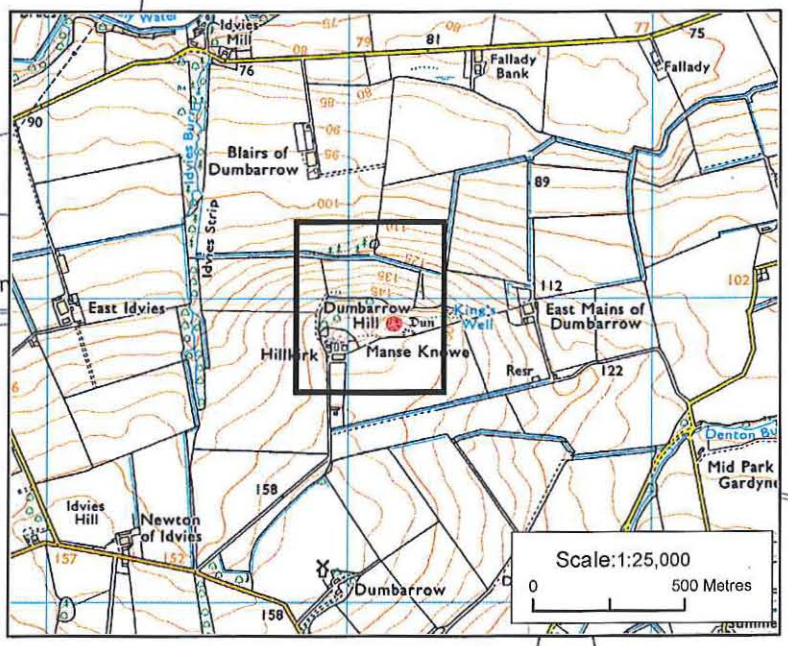

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 29th day of September Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
