THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3092
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dun Domhnuill, dun 70m NNE of Seafield comprises a prehistoric defended settlement of a type known as a dun, likely to date to the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500). The dun survives as a low, roughly oval-shaped enclosure, with traces of internal features. It measures approximately 15m NW-SE by 7.5m transversely, with its entrance and approach from the SW side. It occupies the higher ground of a substantial, locally distinctive knoll, at around 15m above sea level, in an area of mixed rough grazing and unimproved land. It is located on the coastal strip of west Kintyre, between the shoreline some 50m to the W and a N-S trending ridge which rises immediately E of the dun. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan and is defined by the base of the rock outcrop on which the monument is sited, and includes an area extending W and SW of the outcrop. The scheduled area includes the remains described above, an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive, and adjoining land essential for the monument's support and preservation. Specifically excluded from the scheduling are the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence and a drystone wall to the immediate N of the outcrop, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Killean and Kilchenzie and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No ARG 16614[redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Dun Domhnuill situated SW of North Crubasdale as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 28 December 1971 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 20 March 1972.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15th day of March Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
