THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3109
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kilkeddan, dun 850m W of comprises a prehistoric dun, which is a defended settlement likely to date to the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500), and the remains of a post-medieval settlement. The site also includes a boulder believed to bear prehistoric rock art. The dun is visible as the fragmentary remains of a sub-circular enclosure, measuring around 29m by 21.5m, located on a low knoll close to a tributary of Glenlussa Water. A complex of later buildings and enclosures is superimposed on the remains of the dun. Overall, the monument covers an area approximately 60m E-W by 40m N-S on the lower S-facing slope of Sgreadan Hill. The monument is located at a height of 45m above sea level in an area of rough grazing with bracken and scrub. The area to be scheduled is rectangular on plan, measuring 80m E-W by 60m transversely. The scheduled area includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Campbeltown and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Certificate of Service of Notice for the monument known then as Fort (Dun) West of Kilkeddan as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 29 December 1971 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 20 March 1972.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 10th day of May Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
