THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3176
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Glenacardoch, dun 730m WNW of comprises a prehistoric dun, a coastal defended settlement, likely to date to the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500). It survives as a low, turf-covered, sub-oval wall, which encloses an area of approximately 15m by 10m. The dun occupies the summit of an isolated rock, some 5m in height, which stands on the seashore some 450m S of Glenacardoch Point in west Kintyre. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan and is defined by base of the rock outcrop on which the monument is sited. The scheduled area includes the remains described above, an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive, and adjoining land essential for the monument's support and preservation. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Killean and Kilchenzie and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Glenacardoch, dun WNW of in the County of Argyll.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15th day of March Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
