THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3184
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as An Dunan, dun 70m SW of Minen comprises a prehistoric dun likely to date to the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500). It survives as the remains of a substantial sub-circular enclosure wall occupying the summit of a low knoll. The visible footprint of the monument covers an area approximately 21m in diameter, with the interior measuring around 13.5m by 12m. The monument is located at a height of 115m above sea level on a S-facing slope, to the NE of Ballochroy Glen, in an area of rough grazing. The area to be scheduled is an irregular polygon on plan, defined in its southern half by the base of the rock outcrop on which the monument is sited and in its northern half by a modern fence line. The scheduled area includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive, and adjoining land essential for the monument's support and preservation. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of the post-and-wire fence to the N, to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilcalmonell and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Certificate of Service of Notice for the monument known then as Fort, An Dunan, Achameanach as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 28 June 1972 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 20 July 1972.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 10th day of May Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
