THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3203
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Antonine Wall, Roman temporary camp 450m W of Buchley Farm comprises the buried remains of a Roman temporary camp, visible on aerial photographs as the cropmarks of its perimeter ditch. The site lies 350m west of Buchley and lies close to the edge of a low rise, spreading across two fields used for pasture and arable cultivation. Dating to the mid-second century AD, the camp is associated with the construction of the Antonine Wall fort at Balmuildy, situated approximately 710m to the south-west. These cropmarks reveal a rectangular enclosure with four rounded corners and four gates visible. The camp is approximately 245m NE-SW by 180m transversely, creating an internal area of 4.9 hectares. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which related material may be expected to be found. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all post-and-wire fences, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Cadder and the County of Glasgow as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 26 day of November Two thousand and nine, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
