THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3227
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dunan an t-Seasgain, dun 465m WNW of Drumyeonmore Farm, Gigha comprises a prehistoric dun likely to date to the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500). The dun is visible as a sub-oval enclosure sited on the summit of an isolated rocky knoll in the island of Gigha, at a height of 45m above sea level. Overall the dun measures approximately 35m by 24m. The dun is located inland, towards the centre of the island, but has extensive views over the sea channel E of Gigha and beyond, to the Kintyre peninsula. The area to be scheduled is an irregular polygon on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive, and adjoining land essential for the monument's support and preservation. The scheduling extends up to but does not include the post-and-wire fence to the N of the knoll. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Gigha and Cara and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No ARG3717 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Certificate of Service of Notice for the monument known then as Fort known as Dunan an t-Seasgain as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 30 June 1972 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 20 July 1972.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 10th day of May Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
