THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3230
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dun Chibhich, fort 400m NW of Druimyeonbeg, Gigha comprises a prehistoric fort, likely to date to the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500). The fort survives as a substantial turf-covered wall enclosing an area of approximately 37m by 25m, with associated buried remains. The fort is located in the centre of the island of Gigha and occupies a rocky knoll crowning the NE end of a prominent ridge at 45m above sea level. It has extensive views in all directions. The area to be scheduled is circular on plan, measuring 70m in diameter, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive, and adjoining land essential for the monument's support and preservation. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Gigha and Cara and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No ARG3717 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Certificate of Service of Notice for the monument known then as Fort known as Dun Chibhich as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 13 June 1972 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 20 July 1972.

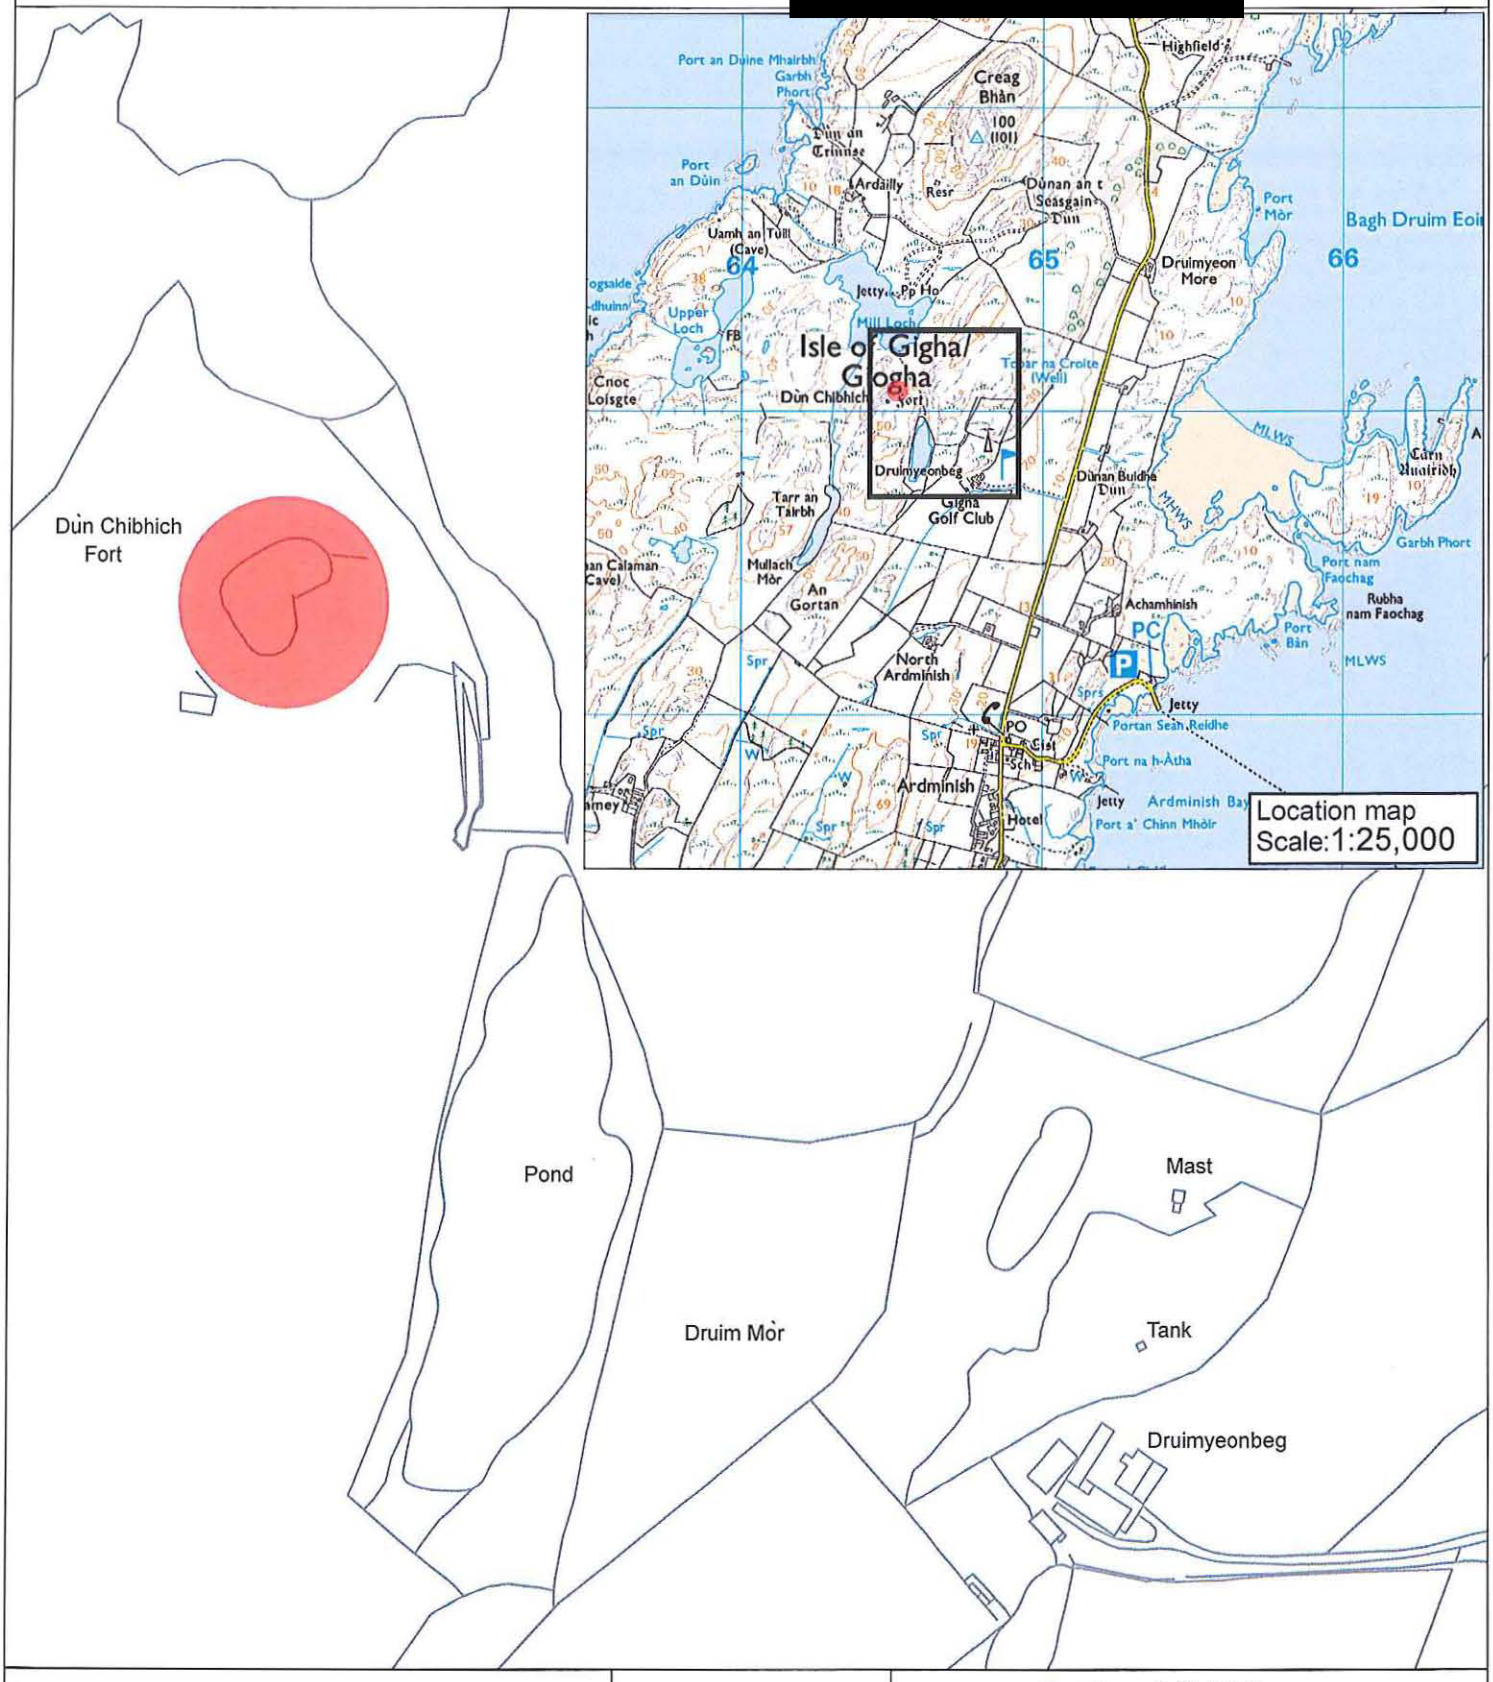

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 10th day of May Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
