THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS 3245

The monument known as Houton, chapel 60m E of Sunnybraes, comprises the grass-covered remains of a building, known locally as Kirkhouse and interpreted as the site of a medieval chapel. It is sited on a small peninsula by the shore on the E side of Houton Head. The area to be scheduled is irregular and measures a maximum of 46m from NE-SW by 38m transversely, to include the visible remains and an area around in which associated remains may survive. The NW edge of the scheduled area is defined by a modern fence which is excluded from the scheduling. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Orphir and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 23rd day of December Two thousand and four, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
