THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3281
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Glenreasdell Mains, chambered cairn 200m SE of comprises a chambered cairn of Neolithic date, dating probably from the third millennium BC. It survives as a grass-grown mound of earth and stones measuring 20m by 19m and standing to a maximum height of 1.2m on the SW side and 0.5m on the NE. Its shape is irregular today, but it is likely originally to have been trapezoidal or oblong. Two roofless burial chambers constructed of large stone slabs are visible near the centre of the cairn. The cairn stands at 45m above sea level on a slight knoll within a cultivated field. The area to be scheduled is circular in plan, measuring 40m in diameter centred on the cairn. The scheduling includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Saddell and Skipness and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

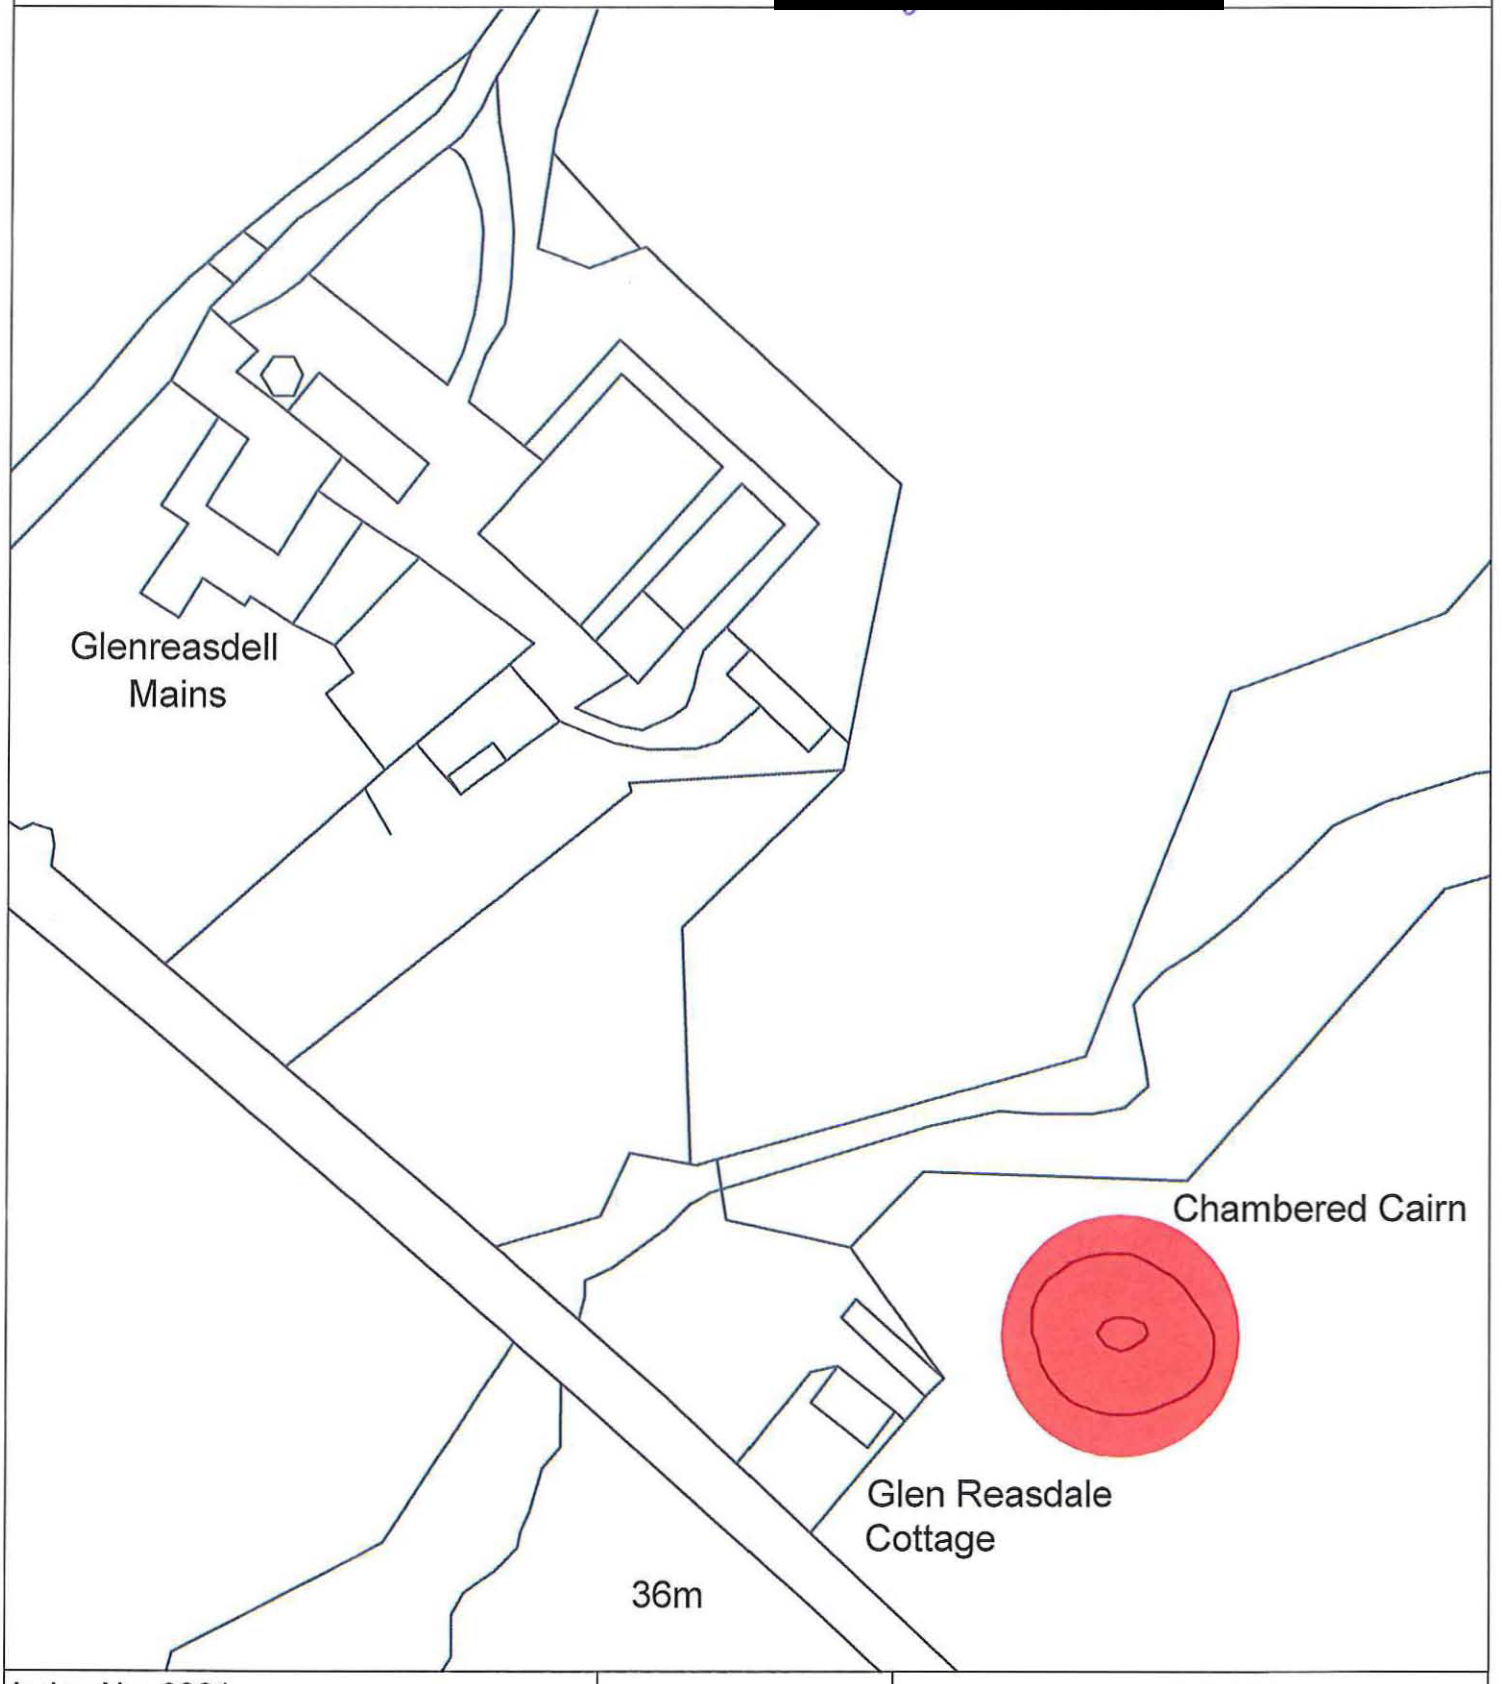

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 7th day of February Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
