THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3678
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cladh na h'Anaid, burial ground, 760m SE of Stonefield comprises the remains of a burial ground of early Christian or, possibly, medieval or later date. It survives as an enclosure defined by a turf and stone bank, which stands up to 1m high in places and up to 0.9m wide. The old Taynuilt to Oban road, now a track approximately 5m wide, runs NW-SE through the burial ground. The majority of the enclosure lies SW of the track. A smaller portion survives to the NE of the track, where it is visible as a sub-circular platform enclosed by a low turf and stone bank. The burial ground measures up to 26m NW-SE by 36m transversely (externally). No internal features or gravemarkers are visible. The burial ground is situated on low ground within rough grazing land, at the edge of a forestry plantation. The scheduled area is rectangular and measures 40m NE-SW by 35m transversely to include the remains described above and an area around them in which evidence relating to the monument's construction and use is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Ardchattan and Muckairn and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Cladh na h'Anaid, burial ground, Auchnacloich as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 21 July 1975 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 26 August 1975.

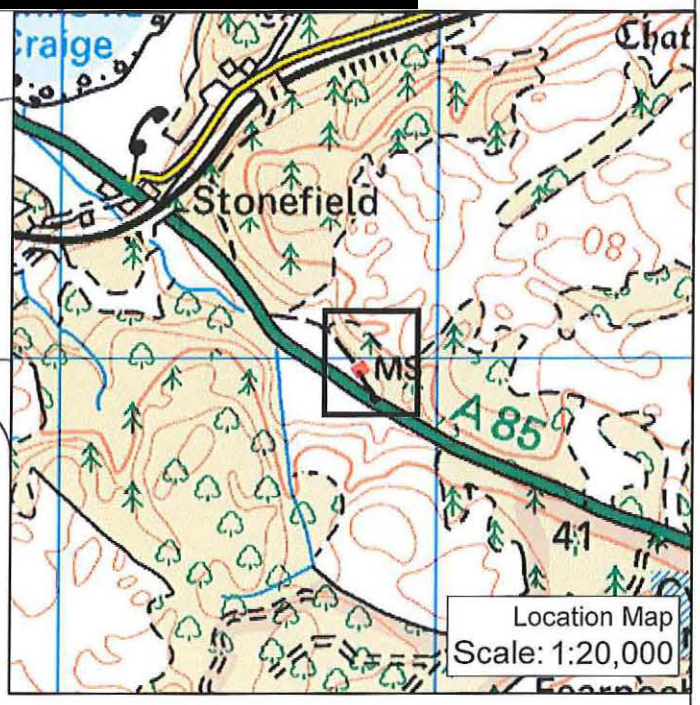

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15th day of August Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
