THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3719
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Largiebaan, shielings 750m SW of comprises the remains of a group of shieling huts of pre-Improvement date. These huts were temporary dwellings, used seasonally by farm-workers who migrated to upland pastures with their cattle during the summer months. The monument occupies the NW side of a small hillock at approximately 30m above sea level in an area currently used for rough grazing. The area to be scheduled is a circle measuring 100m in diameter, centred on the middle of the hillock, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Southend and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Largybaan, six cairns 800m SW of as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 13 August 1975 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 9 September 1975.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15th day of March Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
