THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3737
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

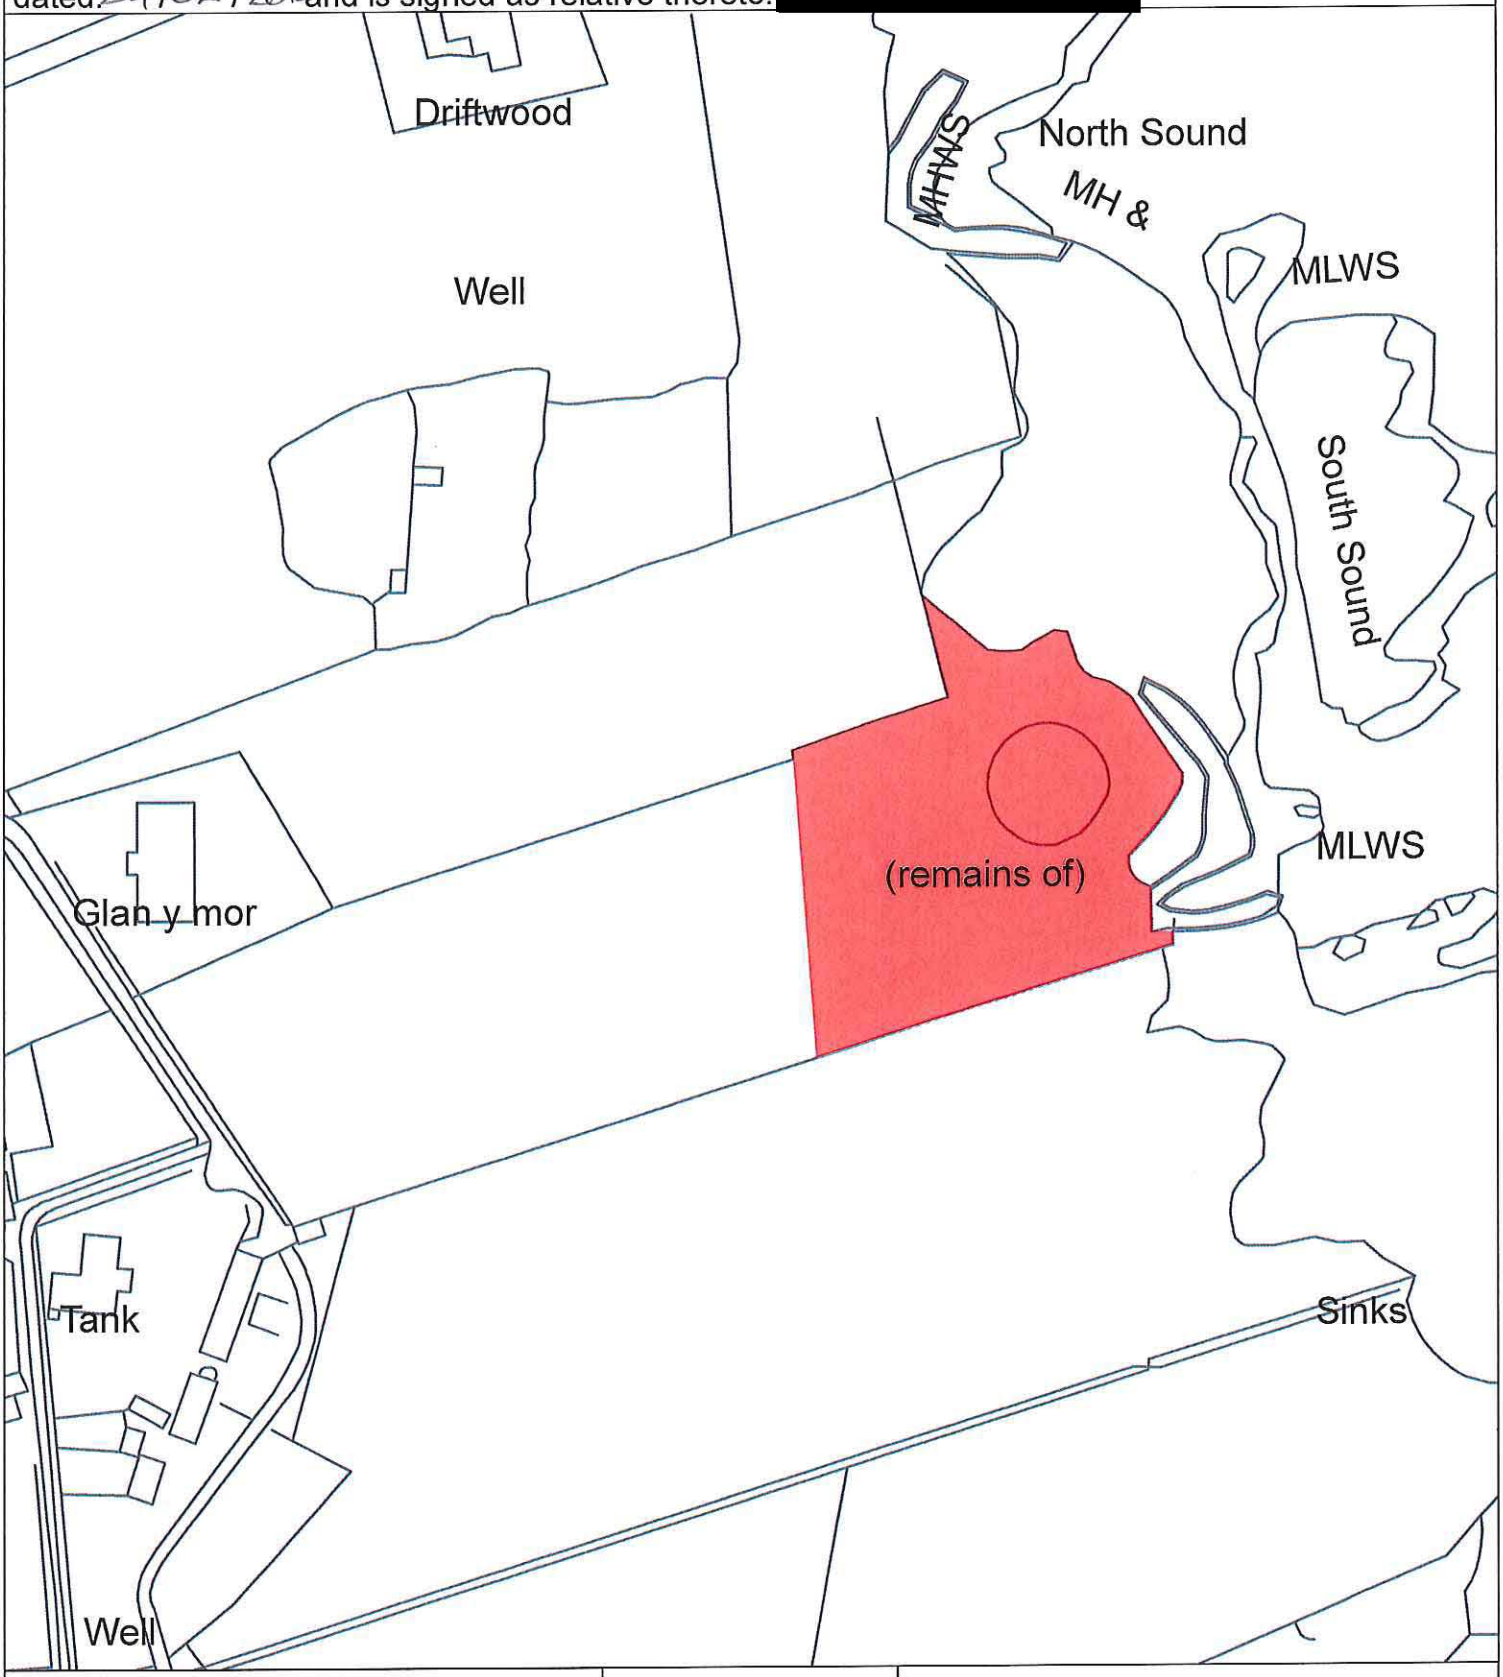

The monument known as Brough Geo, broch 135m E of Glan Y Mor comprises a broch and adjacent structures of probable Iron Age date (between around 500 BC and AD 500), surviving as a series of upstanding walls and earthworks in a pasture field at 10m above sea level. It lies on a cliff, close to the coast. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. It is bounded on the east side by the cliff edge. The scheduled area extends up to, but excludes, the post-and-wire fence to the north, west and south of the monument. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dunrossness and the County of Orkney and Zetland as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Barbara Cummins, Director of Heritage Management with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 24th day of February Two thousand and twelve, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
