THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3778
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kilmelford, cairn 70m N of & enclosure 95m NNW of Hall comprises a prehistoric cairn dating from the late Neolithic or Bronze Age (probably third or second millennium BC) and an adjacent enclosure of later date. The cairn and enclosure are located on pasture at 10m above sea level, on the N side of Loch Melfort, with good views towards the S and W. The area to be scheduled consists of two separate polygons: the first is circular on plan, measuring 32m in diameter centred on the cairn; and the second is square on plan, with sides 30m long, centred on the enclosure. The scheduling includes the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. Specifically excluded from the scheduling are the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence which crosses the N side of the enclosure and the telegraph pole on the cairn to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilninver and Kilmelford and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No ARG 10 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Kilmelford, cairn and enclosure 600m SW of Kilmelford Village as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 19 December 1975 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 19 January 1976.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15th day of March Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
